Barry Opening Drive in Town Chock Full of Local Color

By HUGH A. MULLIGAN
PRESCOTT, Ariz. (AP)—Republican Barry Goldwater formally opens his presidential campaign here this Thursday in the city where his uncle, a staunch Democrat, has been proclaimed Man of the Century.

Prescott, Elev. 5,354, Pop. 18,037, was the capital of Arizona during the rip-roaring territorial days. Pinescented and mountain-rimmed, it now dreams of becoming the summer White House. It always has been Barry Goldwater's "lucky town."

Here he launched two successful campaigns for the U.S. Senate. Here he learned merchandising, starting as a stock clerk in the family store that had the distinction of being the first brick building in Arizona.

Here he got his first taste of politics, passing out handbills for his Uncle Morris, who was mayor of Prescott for 23 years and both speaker of the House and president of the Senate in the Territorial Legislature.

Lake His Namesake
Morris Goldwater, who died in 1939 after a full and adventurous life on the old Arizona frontier, helped organize the state's Democratic party, order of Masons and constitutional convention. Lake Goldwater, the city's reservoir, is named for him.

Sen. Goldwater will kick off his campaign on the steps of the handsome, Grecian-pillared Yavapai County Courthouse.

Directly across the tree-shaded plaza still stands the roaring remnants of Whiskey Row, with its famous Palace Bar, and, on the opposite side, the Goldwater store.

Chinatown Gone
Most of the signs of its pioneer beginnings have disappeared, including Prescott's Chinatown, once the West's largest outside of San Francisco.

But Montezuma Street, alias Whiskey Row, still leaps to life every Saturday night when the cowhands and the miners flock in from the surrounding ranches and lead and zinc mines.

The feroe tables and roulette wheels have long since given way to pinball machines and juke boxes, and a rock 'n' roll now blasts away where Little Egypt doffed her draperies. The local barbershop still advertises hot baths at 50 cents and the ranchers still stretch out their mountain lion skins on the pool table in the Palace Bar to collect the $50 state bounty.

Local Color on Parade
"Count the bullet holes in the ceiling—there's 17 of them," urged a patron in the Palace on a recent Saturday night. "And see that big old wooden bar? They took it out of a New York bar in 1878 and brought it here around the Horn by ship and across the desert from California by Wagon train. The mustache towels are gone, but it's still the best looking piece of furniture in town."

The ornate old bar survived the great fire of July 4, 1900, that wiped out Prescott's business district, except Chinatown, and brought Duke Hose Co. No. 2, organized by Morris Goldwater, hurrying to the scene. The Dudes, made up of merchants and bankers, traditionally slugged it out at the scene of every fire with volunteers from

'Talked Too Much' at Hurley Farm

Migrant Faces Murder, Wife Dies of Gunshot

A 53-year old Belle Glade, Fla., migrant worker shot his wife to death Saturday night on the Jack Gill corn farm, Hurley, because she "talked too much" and then spent the night sleeping in the barn before reporting the shooting. He is charged with first degree murder.

Floyd Elbert, 53, with his 49-year-old wife, Lena Mae Elbert, came to Ulster County in June to work on the Gill corn farm. They, with others resided in a stone house owned by Gill on Route 209. They had been married 10 years. They no children.

Appeared Jealous
According to the story which Elbert told Ulster County Investigator Thomas Mayone of the sheriff's department, he sat on the porch of the house Saturday night talking to other employees. His wife, who he said, had been drinking, called him in the house about 8:30 and began to accuse him of talking to the other women at the house. Elbert said she appeared to be jealous.

She, according to Elbert, who made a statement to the sheriff's men, continued to accuse him of talking to other women. This continued for some time and between 10 and 11 p. m. Elbert said he "had enough" and went to a trunk, took out a single .22 calibre bullet, fitted it into a rifle and approached his wife who was lying on the bed. Elbert told the officials she continued to "yack" as he approached. He allegedly placed the rifle against her head and fired.

Spends Night in Barn
Mayone said Elbert then proceeded to put the gun back in the corner of the room, and, without looking at his wife left the room and spent the night in the barn.

None of the other occupants of the house apparently heard the shot.

Sunday morning Elbert arose about 7 o'clock and returned to the house where he put on a clean shirt and went out on the porch of the house. There about 9:30 o'clock he notified one of his fellow workers that he had shot his wife. The worker notified Mr. Gill who reported the shooting to the sheriff's office.

Investigate Shooting
Deputy Sheriff Vincent Van Demark went to the scene where he found Mrs. Elbert dead in bed. Ulster County Coroner William S. Keyser and Ulster County Investigator Thomas Mayone were notified and went to the scene. Also notified was the district attorney's office and Francis Vogt joined the investigation.

The body was taken to the Ulster County morgue where an autopsy was ordered by Coroner Keyser, who withheld a verdict pending the outcome of the autopsy and further investigation.

Elbert was taken before Justice of the Peace Alton Boice of Town of Hurley where he was waived examination and was committed to jail to await grand jury action on a first degree murder charge.

Investigator Mayone said Elbert has admitted the shooting and given a statement.

Philadelphia Quiet After Race Fights

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A tense, uneasy quiet returned to the riot-ravaged Negro section of North Philadelphia today, after a weekend of violence, looting, and pillaging.

Sporadic vandalism, window smashing and throwing of rocks at police continued into the early morning hours, but city and police officials said the situation remained under control and the four-square-mile trouble zone was returning to relatively normal operations.

Some 1,500 police saturated the area, which remained under a 24-hour curfew.

Mayor James H.J. Tate emphasized that a clear-the-streets order issued Saturday remained in effect. The proclamation, falling under an 1850 law, made it a misdemeanor, with a maximum penalty of two years in prison, for anyone to be on the streets without legitimate business.

225 Looted
Tate, in a progress statement late Sunday night, reported that 225 stores had been looted and more than 350 persons arrested for various violations. The injured totaled 247, including 66 policemen. Almost all of the injuries were minor and there were no fatalities.

One shooting was reported. Police said Robert Green, a 21-year-old Negro, was wounded Saturday night when he pulled a knife on a patrolman who was chasing persons throwing cans at a patrol car.

Tate estimated "several millions of dollars" in damages and other costs caused by the riot-policemen. Almost all of the injuries were minor and there were no fatalities.

The full assistance of the city administration in helping the affected merchants get back to normal operations as soon as possible.

Roy Wilkins, executive secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, called upon the federal government to investigate the riots in Philadelphia as well as in other northern cities, suggesting that the riots were planned.

Sgt. York Very Grave
NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—The doughboy hero of World War I, Sgt. Alvin York, appeared to be losing ground to death in his long battle with ill health.

His condition was listed in a series of medical reports from Veterans Hospital throughout the night as first critical, then grave and early today as very grave. The wife, son and daughter of the 76-year-old Medal of Honor winner were called to his bedside Sunday night.

Ellenville Boy, Girl Are Killed

2 Others Die, 11 Hurt in Collision

A station wagon carrying an Ellenville family of 12 and one other crashed Sunday at Frederickburg, Va., causing the death of two children and another passenger, critically injuring two other children and hospitalizing the rest of the family.

A passenger in the other car involved in the crash also was killed.

13 in Station Wagon
The Associated Press reported the station wagon carrying 13 people slammed broadside into a car during a heavy rain.

State Trooper Charles D. Nelms said the station wagon was headed south on four-lane U. S. 1, five miles north of Frederickburg, when it skidded into the path of a northbound car.

Killed were Edith Wright, 12, of Ellenville; her brother, David Laverne Wright, 9; and Daisy Lynch, 43, of Sayetteville, N. C., all occupants of the station wagon; and Mrs. Annie Whitlow, 70, of Richmond, Va., a passenger in the automobile.

Listed in critical condition in a Richmond Hospital were two other Wright children, Vickie, 6 and Diane, 7.

All Hospitalized
Injured, but less seriously, were Mrs. Whitlow's husband, Joseph, 61, who was hospitalized in Richmond; Theophilus Wright of Ellenville; his wife, Annie; and six others of their 10 children, all of whom were hospitalized.

Catholic Parish At Veteran Buys Centerville Tract

A tract in excess of 19 acres in Centerville, the site of the former Geick summer boarding-house at Route 212 and Blue Mountain Road, was recently purchased by the Church of St. John the Evangelist of Veterans.

Tax stamps paid in the transaction indicate the sale was made by Herman and Mae Geick for approximately $28,000.

No Confirmation Yet
Widely circulated reports in the area indicate that the land was purchased for a parochial school and new church building. However none of these could be confirmed at this time.

The Rev. Leo Laffin, pastor of the charge which includes St. Patrick's at Quarryville; St. Thomas the Apostle, Veterans; St. John the Evangelist, The Grove, and Our Lady of the Mountain, West Saugerties, said an announcement as to the future plans of the property were premature.

To Meet Expansion
He said the purchase was made for the future expansion of the parish.

The present plant at Veterans includes the church, parish hall and paragonage at the intersection.

State Weekend Toll: 35

Po'keepsie Cyclist Is Among 24 Fatalities

Twenty-four persons lost their lives in traffic accidents in New York State the last weekend, including William Johnson, 32, of 17 Woodward Road, Town of Poughkeepsie, an IBM employee.

A total of 35 persons died in all types of mishaps, according to The Associated Press.

In Putnam County
Fishkill State Police told The Freeman, Johnson was riding his motorcycle east on Route 301 in Nelsonville, Putnam County, at 11:10 p. m. Saturday when he approached an area roped off for a square dance conducted by the Nelsonville Fire Department.

Troopers said Johnson drove through the rope, hit Putnam County Deputy Sheriff Joseph Scallisi and forced him against a car parked on the north shoulder of the highway. The motorcycle continued on and crashed into a truck parked on the south shoulder.

At this point, Johnson was hurled from the motorcycle, which landed on his chest. He was pronounced dead on arrival at Butterfield Memorial Hospital, Cold Spring. Scallisi was taken to the hospital and treated for undetermined injuries.

Fishkill Trooper Charles Doyle investigated.

A woman run over by her own automobile and a man killed in the collision of two speedboats towing water skiers were among the weekend fatalities in the state reported by the Associated Press.

Five Drowned
The number of traffic deaths reached 24 in the period from 6 p. m. Friday to midnight Sunday. Five persons were drowned and six others perished in other kinds of accidents.

The dead included a man who was hit by electric shock as he helped paint a church.

Rose Picard, 53, of Bay Shore, was killed Sunday when she fell from her car and was run over by the vehicle. Witnesses said her car was thrown into reverse as she fell out and circled backward three times, passing over her each time.

Elsewhere on Long Island, Herbert Lichtenstein, 35, of West Hempstead lost his life Saturday in the collision of two motorboats pulling waterskiers. The accident occurred at Ocean-side.

Was Painting Church
At Westerville, Oneida County, Harry F. Sykes, 22 of Westerville, died Saturday of electric shock when he was standing on a ladder on which he was painting a high-tension line while he was helping to paint a church.

Among other deaths, by community:

Schenectady—Carlton S. Inman Jr., 17, Schenectady, died early Saturday of a bullet wound suffered when he shot himself Friday night while cleaning his rifle.

Schoharie—James Keyser, 20, Schoharie, died a tree Saturday.

Caanan—Samuel Hadden, 41, Troy, crashed into a disabled tractor-trailer parked off Route 22 Saturday.

Bases Are Called Big War Threat

Nasser Speaks Out Against Outsiders

NICOSIA, Cyprus (AP)—President Makarios won a pledge of support today from the United Arab Republic in his dispute with Turkish Cypriots on troubled Cyprus as anti-American demonstrations continued in Turkey.

President Gamal Abdel Nasser also warned against outside interference in the island's affairs, said a joint communique issued in Alexandria at the conclusion of talks between Nasser and Makarios.

Nasser did not specifically pledge military support, however.

Nasser's pledge to Makarios came on the heels of renewed demonstrations in Turkey's key cities.

The United Arab Republic thus followed the lead of Greece and the Soviet Union in promising help if Cyprus were invaded by Turkey.

"The U.A.R. is prepared to provide support for the sake of strengthening the efforts of the Cypriot people in their struggle to safeguard the unity of their island," the communique said.

"The two sides agreed that foreign military bases are a threat to international peace," it added.

Nasser is known to be opposed to the presence of Western military bases in the eastern Mediterranean. Britain retains two military bases on Cyprus under the 1960 treaty of independence. A British base on Cyprus was used as a staging area for the British-French attack on Egypt during the 1956 Suez crisis.

Reliable sources said Makarios and Nasser also discussed a possible shipment of Soviet arms to Cyprus via Egypt.

Before departing for Cyprus, Makarios told a news conference Nasser had promised him "all possible assistance to meet the danger of any new aggression."

The people of Cyprus should decide on enosis—union with Greece—but "under" condition that no foreign bases should be located on Cyprus," he said.

Makarios said Turkish Cypriots who compose about 20 per cent of the island's population "will not be allowed a veto power." It was Makarios' attempt to end the Turkish minority's veto on major legislation that began the Cyprus civil war last December.

The Greek Cypriot leader, who flew to Alexandria Saturday to confer with U.A.R. President Gamal Abdel Nasser, said Sunday that Nasser "reassured me of his support in several ways."

In an address in the Greek Orthodox cathedral in Alexandria, Makarios, archbishop of Cyprus, reaffirmed "our determination to carry on our struggle to the end. We won't surrender."

"We believe that with people who have the strength to fight, we will win in the end and will endorse the Greek Cypriots."

Await Big Turnout At Exposition Debut

SYRACUSE, N.Y. (AP)—The "hoopla and the ballyhoo," traditionally centered on Broadway, and currently located at the New York World's Fair, shifts Tuesday for the opening of the seven-day run of the 118-year-old State Exposition.

Final preparations for the balloon-blanketed opening finds Exposition officials expressing optimism that the World's Fair "will help rather than hurt" attendance.

An estimated half-million persons, including scores of politicians and personalities, are expected to attend the exposition between 9 a. m. Tuesday, when Julie Just of Buffalo—this year's Miss New York State snips a ribbon to release a thousand balloons, and 10 p. m. Labor Day, Sept. 7.

Harold L. Creal, exposition director, says that the World's Fair has not hurt the exposition and adds:

Bigger Sales
"So far, we have had more interest in the sale of space by exhibitors than in the past."

Leading the list of political figures expected to pass among the crowds is Gov. Rockefeller, due to attend Governor's Day observations Thursday.

Others the political field expected include Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy, the probable Democratic nominee for the Senate from New York, and the Republican incumbent, Sen. Kenneth B. Keating of Rochester.

Note State Produce
As usual, the Exposition—which formerly was known as the State Fair—will feature the state's agricultural and industrial products.

Many of the exhibitors will be competing for the $150,000 in prizes and more than 30,000 ribbons, trophies and rosettes for products and livestock ranging from sheep and cattle.

On the entertainment side, Creal said there would be 131 free shows, starting such attractions as singer Bobby Rydell, Sergio Franchi, the Italian tenor; folksinger Oscar Brand (Continued on Page 10, Col. 4)

LONGEST SUSPENSION SPAN TAKES SHAPE—The Verrazano-Narrows Bridge spanning the mouth of New York Harbor looms high over Staten Island buildings. The far tower is in Brooklyn at the other end of what will be the world's longest suspension span. Toll booths, still only partly constructed, are in the foreground. Staten Island and Brooklyn are parts of New York City. (AP Wirephoto)

Conservatives to Run Teacher Instead of Clare Boothe Luce

SARATOGA SPRINGS, N.Y. (AP)—Conservative Party leaders tapped history professor Henry Paolucci for nomination today at the party's state convention to run in place of Clare Boothe Luce against Republican Sen. Kenneth B. Keating.

Mrs. Luce, a Republican, bowed out as a potential opponent of Keating Sunday in the face of strong threats that Gov. Rockefeller's GOP state organization would withdraw support from the Republican national ticket unless she did so.

Conservative party spokesmen said that only a last-minute concession by the state GOP in a wrangle over presidential electors could prevent nomination of Paolucci, 43-year-old member of the Iona College faculty.

"Unless we have a formal statement by 1:30 p. m. from the Republican State Committee that we will permit to run the same electors, we are going to nominate our candidate," said Kieran O'Doherty, the convention's permanent chairman.

Want Two Slots
The Conservatives want to endorse the GOP electors in order to give Sen. Barry Goldwater two lines on the New York State election ballot. President Johnson will have both the Democratic and Liberal party lines.

Rockefeller and other GOP leaders have refused, however, to join forces in any way with the Conservative Party, a splinter group that broke away from the State GOP two years ago.

Mrs. Luce, a noted author and former Congresswoman and ambassador, had said she would run against Keating if he persisted in his refusal to endorse Goldwater.

Interest of Unity
Under strong pressure from the Rockefeller organization, she announced Sunday that she was withdrawing in the interest of Republican unity.

Paolucci was chosen by a consensus of party leaders Sunday afternoon and appeared to face only token opposition in the form of Donald Serrell, a Garden City lawyer who threw his hat into the ring several weeks ago.

Between 300 and 400 delegates, chosen by the party's county committees, were expected to participate in the convention.

Pursue Court Fight
Paolucci had been entered as the Conservative candidate in Manhattan against Democratic Rep. William Fitz Ryan. Paolucci said he would withdraw from that race after nomination for the Senate.

Meanwhile, party leaders said they would continue their court fight to gain permission to endorse the GOP electors.

The Conservatives lost the first round Saturday when Justice Ellis J. Staley of State Supreme Court upheld the Republicans' argument—that electors had the same right as other candidates for public office to refuse any party's endorsement. Mahoney and O'Doherty said they would go next to the Appellate Division.

MONEY EARNS GOOD WAGES

Interest rates will be relatively high into the indefinite future. This is an encouraging fact to millions of thrifty savers who have long-term dollar contracts to fulfill.

In these days of rapid world communications, the flow of capital to Europe goes out easily and steadily. Higher interest rates hasten the transfer of billions of dollars. As a result, the imbalance of payments between the United States and Europe tends to lower America's gold supplies which are already at a dangerously low level.

Good wages for money help countless people here to attain financial stability. Here is a young executive, age 32, with a family of four to provide for. He carries two sizable insurance policies—life and endowment—and he has a $20,000 first mortgage due in 18 years on his suburban home.

He knows today how many dollars will be required yearly to pay mortgage interest and amortization costs on his home, and to meet his insurance costs. Consequently, in his savings bank account where he receives 4 1/4 per cent yearly interest, he keeps enough dollars on deposit to pay these costs for two years.

Financial planning is ignored in far too many households. When a young person takes his first job, a carefully-thought-through plan should be established. Cash reserves should be placed in banks. An insurance program, carefully tailored to assure a short and long term guarantee against financial distress, and a logical investment plan should be undertaken.

Today, there are thousands of people speculating in the stock market who are violating these principles.

The head-waiter in a leading New York City hotel came to see me this week. He is 52. He has no savings account and he carries only $2,000 in insurance. Twenty-five years ago he should have opened a savings account in a mutual savings bank and over a period of time he should have deposited $5,000 there. And, of course, he should have bought $25,000 worth of insurance.

But most of them have gone down the speculative drain. Risk-taking has become an integral part of him.

Thousands of people in America reach retirement age every year and instead of being financially self-reliant as they would be if for 40 years they had practiced thrift, saving, and sound investment, they have to lower their standards of living, or look for financial hand-outs from relatives or the government.

Some aspects of Social Security smack of vocational indolence and economic waste and extravagance.

Readers of this column in their twenties, thirties, and forties, who are saving nothing, should open an account in a good savings institution at once, and deposit in that account 5 per cent to 10 per cent of every paycheck. Such action can discipline a careless life. Remember: today, savings earn good wages.

Q "I am 30, earning $12,000 a year. How much should I save and where should this go?"

S.B.S.

A) If you can, save $1,200 a year. With $500 of this, buy insurance policies. With the rest, deposit it in good banks and buy "blue-chip" common stocks.

HAMILTON, N. Y. (AP)—F. Maxwell Towne of Glens Falls has been re-elected president of the American Baptist Men of New York State.

He was re-elected Saturday by about 300 members of the organization gathered for the 32nd annual conference, held at Colgate University.

Others elected included: Lloyd S. Cochran of Lockport, executive vice president; Forrest E. Wilcox of Niagara Falls, treasurer; James K. Cotter of Glens Falls, secretary; and the Rev. A. King Wise of Glens Falls, pastor-counselor.

Eastern States Fair Has Exotic Flavor and Color

WEST SPRINGFIELD — Any one seeking the color and exotic atmosphere usually associated with foreign travel need journey no further than the grounds of the Eastern States Exposition during its Sept. 19-27 nine-day run.

Because during that period at ESE's International Fair, it will be possible for the traveler to visit minute portions of Japan, Italy, Poland, France, Canada, Germany—and perhaps Korea and Lebanon. And not merely visit, but in some cases, buy products manufactured in these countries.

For the weary traveler, who would appreciate a chance to rest and partake of some light refreshment, there is the Cafe de Paris, an authentic duplication of a Parisian sidewalk cafe. Here the Exposition visitor can sip authentic vintage French wines and choose from a selection of French cheeses, all at prices comparable to those he would find in France.

The International Fair, in its second year, and given official recognition by the U. S. Department of State and Commerce as an adjunct of American foreign trade efforts, is rapidly becoming one of the more popular attractions of the annual Exposition.

Only one other fair in the United States has received official Commerce Department designation as International Fair for 1964.

Separate Theatres

NEW YORK (AP) — Martin Gabel and his wife Arlene Francis are both going to be on Broadway this season, but at different theatres. Miss Francis appears with Fernand Gravat and Madeline Carroll in "Bookman Place" that is due at the Morosco Oct. 7. Her husband is slated to portray the villainous Professor Moriarty in "Baker Street," a musical based on the Sherlock Holmes stories that is expected in February.

Continue Search For Truck Thief; Stolen Saturday

Ellenville State Police today continued search for a thief who stole a 1947 pickup truck from the parking lot at the New Prospect Church, Walker Valley, Saturday.

The vehicle, owned by Andrew Palinkas, RD 2, Pine Bush, was found by him smashed against a tree off Cooper Road, about two miles north of the parking lot from which it was taken.

Troopers said the occupant of the truck at the time of the mishap apparently was injured. The windshield was smashed and blood was found on the glass.

Poland to Single Out Hitler 1939 Invasion

WARSAW, Poland (AP) — A series of antiwar rallies will be held on the 25th anniversary of Hitler's 1939 invasion of Poland.

Setting the stage for the rallies, Poland's largest circulation paper, the Evening Express, accused England and France of shirking obligations to Poland in 1939 by not quickly attacking Hitler's forces.

Would Send Signals Out to Solar Systems

SOUTHAMPTON, England (AP) — A British physicist suggested today that earthmen ought to be sending signals into space, just in case anyone is out there listening.

Dr. D. M. A. Mercer, lecturer at Southampton University, told the British Association for the Advancement of Science that life may exist in other solar systems.

"The most likely way for one intelligent world to try to contact another would be to send out unmanned spaceships loaded with computers and scientific information ready to give and receive information," Dr. Mercer said.

Blame Jap Walkies For Model Plane Dips

LONDON (AP) — Radio-controlled model airplanes flown by hobbyists west of London are suddenly behaving as though suicide pilots had taken over.

Outraged model builders blame Japanese-made walkie-talkies that have just come on the market. They operate on a fixed frequency, the same one allotted by the British Post Office to the remote-controlled planes.

Dear Abby . . .

The Scent of Controversy!

Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: Though I am supposed to solve political problems, I have one which I have wrestled with for some time and I need help. It pertains to skunks.

Two of my grandsons want to adopt skunks. I told them that I would go along with them. Confidentially, I even encouraged them. When I was young, I used to trap skunks (some people say I still do). A good de-scented skunk, regardless of his politics, is not too bad to have around the house. However, Mrs. Pearson objects. She says she will not tolerate skunks in our home. Since my grandsons are visiting us this summer, and I did promise them some skunks, what is your advice?

DREW PEARSON

DEAR MR PEARSON: A promise is a promise. Get the grandsons the skunks. They make wonderful pets! But be sure they're deodorized — otherwise I predict your life won't be worth a scent!

DEAR ABBY: I am 17 and I hope you won't think my problem is too silly to answer. You see, my parents do not allow me to date a boy unless he is the same faith as I am. You can't always tell by their looks, or even by their names, and I don't think it is very nice to come right out and ask a person what church he belongs to. Yet there would be no sense in starting to like a boy who doesn't go to my church because, if he liked me, I couldn't date him anyway. So how can I find out what religion a boy is without coming right out and asking him?

To Make New Effort On Refunding Taxes

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Internal Revenue Service promises something new next year in a perennial effort to make tax refunds to missing taxpayers.

About 275,000 refunds were returned to the government during the fiscal year which ended last June 30 because taxpayers moved without leaving forwarding addresses.

The IRS next year plans to use a new automatic data processing system to match the identity numbers on new returns with the numbers of persons who cannot be found.

Chinese Won't Attend Meeting Of World Reds

TOKYO (AP) — Communist China has announced officially it will boycott a Soviet-sponsored conference to plan a world Communist meeting. It says the day such a meeting is held "will go down in history as the day of the great split in the international Communist movement."

Peking accused the Soviet Union of siding with the United States in the recent Gulf of Tonkin crisis "by actively supporting the U.S. attempt to intervene in Viet Nam through the United Nations."

Red China's charge was contained in a letter dated Aug. 30 in which the Central Committee

Informing Suspects

PEORIA, Ill. (AP) — Law enforcement officers in this area are being warned that they must tell a suspect in a crime that he has a right to say nothing before they question him.

Chief Judge J. E. Richards of the Illinois Supreme Court says if the officers don't comply, any statement a suspect makes can't be used in a trial.

Agency broadcast the reply. Peking was one of 25 Communist parties invited to lay the groundwork for a meeting of 81 Communist parties next summer.

Red China also accused the United States of opening up a new "special warfare" theater in Africa. China has made Africa one of its major spheres of activity.

The broadcast said Peking told Moscow:

"We will never take part in any international meeting or any preparatory meeting for it, which you call for the purpose of splitting the international Communist movement."

Relative efficiency of oil and gas heating units is calculated as equal, as reported in Bulletin LR-11 issued in 1962 by the U.S. Public Housing Administration. An efficiency of 100% was used for electricity, since almost all of the electrical energy is converted to heat.

Assuming these factors to be equal — the average out-of-doors temperature, the type of insulation and building construction, the size and location of the home, the area to be heated, and the comfort demands of the occupants—OIL HEAT IS BEST AND COSTS MUCH LESS!

NEW POLICE WEAPON

It is the advantage of the New York City Police Department has been using human volunteers to test the anesthetic dart gun and determine its usefulness in law enforcement. It is a fair guess that results of these experiments are being awaited with interest by police in other communities, who also are hampered by lack of a weapon that can subdue a man at long range without killing or seriously wounding him.

The anesthetic dart gun shows great promise in this regard. For some years it has been used by conservationists and biologists to bring down large animals for study. Presumably it can be adapted for use on human law violators.

The advantage of such a gun in riot control is self-evident. Its use in apprehension of fleeing suspects, with minimal danger of severe injury to either the suspects or innocent bystanders, appears sound. If a gun sufficiently harmless and quickly effective can be devised, we may be on the verge of a revolutionary advance in law enforcement.

TIME FOR FACTS

The continuing civilian unrest and political uncertainty in South Viet Nam make gloomy reading for every American — the gloomiest since the Syngman Rhee government was overthrown in South Korea and revealed to have been corrupt.

The military situation in South Viet Nam is bad enough. After the expenditure of untold millions of dollars and hundreds of American lives—not to mention thousands of Vietnamese lives, both civilian and military—the most the United States can hope for is a military stalemate, according to a "think piece" leaked from the Central Intelligence Agency.

The recent deposing of President Nguyen Khanh by mass demonstrations of students, Buddhists and others, reveals that South Viet Nam, like Korea, is still far from establishing a viable democracy.

It would be easy to fall prey to a feeling of despair over the future of democracy in Asia. But if South Korea and South Viet Nam, two places where American blood has flowed so freely, are not yet safe for democracy, neither are they lost to communism.

The Korean War was so unpopular and so little understood that most Americans would like to forget it completely. Yet it was in Korea that outright Communist aggression of the most lawless kind was met and pushed back to where it came from. The Republic of Korea, despite its shortcomings, still exists.

And in South Viet Nam, Communist aggression of a more sinister and elusive kind is being met and so far held at bay.

Fortunately, American involvement there has been vastly less than it was in Korea, where more men fell in a given period of time than in the Adrenes in World War II.

The great overhanging question is whether the Viet Nam involvement can be kept limited. Right now it appears unlikely that it can be, for whatever good may eventually come of the latest political upheaval in Saigon, its immediate effect upon Vietnamese conduct of the war is bound to be adverse.

In a way, it may be a good thing that a new crisis has erupted in Southeast Asia at the beginning of the presidential election campaign. It is high time for a public hearing on American mistakes, accomplishments, intentions and hopes in that part of the world.

It would be a bad thing, however, if the already complicated situation were further confused by cries of havoc and partisan attacks from the one side and sugar-coated assurances from the other.

Statesmanship—and truth—from both parties is required.

Ninety-three per cent of American families own television sets. This makes it easy for the administration to spread the word about the war on poverty.

A GOLDWATER MAN IN VERMONT

In little Vermont they are engaged in a replay of the sort of drama that gripped the U.S. as a whole last Spring, when Barry Goldwater was contending against the liberal Republicans to nail down the Presidential nomination.

This time it involves a primary contest, scheduled for September 8, which will determine whether the Republican candidate for the governor's job in the Green Mountain State will be a Goldwater man or a liberal. The Goldwater man is Roger Lea MacBride, a 35-year-old lawyer from the town of Halifax. The two liberals who are contending for the opportunity to campaign against the incumbent Democratic governor, 39-year-old Philip Hoff, are Ralph Foote, the current lieutenant governor, and Robert Babcock, who was lieutenant governor before Foote. Both Foote and Babcock are known as proteges of Vermont's Republican Senator George Aiken. They have made only grudging recognition of Goldwater, and have been seeking to keep national Republican policies out of the campaign.

The whole question of Vermont politics turns on the few thousand men and women from the rural areas who normally limit their voting to presidential years. In an off-year in which there is a small turnout a Democrat can win; in an off-year a liberal Republican can hope to go to the U.S. Senate or the House of Representatives. But in a Presidential year the old Vermont conservatism stirs.

This is the basis for Roger MacBride's hope. He has been trying to bring home Vermont's split personality to the voters by fighting a Goldwater campaign in miniature. In terms of the urban present, Vermont is old-fashioned. The population is tiny, town meetings are still the heart of local government, the industries—machine tools, ski resort catering, dairying, maple sugar—are small. There are no "masses" to manipulate.

Yet the State is no longer the Yankee kingdom of old, the bastion that held fast (along with Maine) for Alf Landon against the Franklin Roosevelt sweep of 1936. It now has an entrenched bureaucracy, which lives on a taxation that has gone wild. Liberal intellectuals have bought Vermont farms; the place is dotted with schools and colleges that believe in the modern gospel of permissiveness. Cleavages exist all over the place.

Roger MacBride is stressing three issues in his campaign. Foremost is the issue of the reapportionment that has been decreed by the U.S. Supreme Court. The second issue is taxation. The third is Barry Goldwater.

On reapportionment, a district court has ruled that Vermont may elect its legislature according to the time-honored pattern next November. But the court has decreed that the new legislature must limit its activity to reapportioning the state. Then it must go home. New elections must be held.

MacBride has been telling the Vermont voters that not since King George III had anyone tried to tell an American legislature what it must do. Vermont's political representation is, incidentally, patterned on Connecticut's: its Senate is based on population, and its lower House is the geographically representative body. This is an inversion of Washington, D.C., where the House of Representatives is the equivalent of the Vermont Senate. Since the farmers of Vermont live in the sparsely settled areas, they regard their own lower House as the protector of their liberties. Roger MacBride is hoping the farmers will turn out for him in big numbers in protest against reapportionment.

The issue of taxation could prove to be a plus for MacBride. Vermont, he keeps telling the voters, has the second highest State income tax in the union. The cost of running the various State departments has jumped twenty-five per cent in the past two years. The State Department of Recreation uses the people's money to tell them how to organize card parties and build swimming pools. It's your money, says MacBride over and over again to the voters.

Could be that this approach will make MacBride the Vermont Goldwater.

THE WELL CHILD

He Doesn't Like School?
It May Be Mother's Fault

By WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M.D.
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

"I don't wanna go to school!" Mother, don't believe it when your child says this. Most normal children like school and would be unhappy and bored without it.

A few, however, develop a negative attitude and make quite a fuss about school. They may even get headaches or vomit when the time comes to leave the house. This is not the same as pretending illness to get out of going to school occasionally but is rather a type of fear or anxiety reaction.

The possible causes include fear of being bullied by classmates, fear of failure in the performance of daily assignments or, in some older children, a general belligerence associated with the onset of puberty.

In many children, however, especially those in the lower grades, the cause is "mother love" or an overprotective attitude on the part of the mother. Some mothers just can't bear to see their little darlings grow up.

They urge their child to be off to school, but secretly hope the child will refuse to leave her. A child is quick to sense the mother's emotional conflict. Although he cannot put it into words he gets the message.

In the end, the mother becomes terrified by her "unruly" child's complete defiance of her and the child becomes terrified at being cast adrift, as it were, in a world where the adults he depends on show no authority and refuse him the firm guidance he knows he needs.

When firmness fails, giving the child a mild tranquilizer in the morning for a day or two may solve the problem. If this doesn't work both the mother and child may need a psychiatric study. But frequently the mere suggestion by the family physician that such a course is necessary is enough to snap a parent into getting a firmer grip on the situation.

Q—Our son was operated on at the age of 3 months for cranial synostosis. What caused this? Can anything be done for it? If we have another child would he have the same condition?

A—Your son had a premature closing of the soft spot in his skull. This is caused by some fault in the early development of the embryo. It limits the capacity of the skull to grow and, because the brain continues to grow at a normal pace, the pressure within the skull builds up. Sometimes this can be relieved by operation but there is always some danger of brain damage and blindness. It is most unlikely that this deformity would occur twice in one family.

Washington News

WASHINGTON — (NEA) —

There is a steadily growing conflict between Buddhists and Catholics in South Viet Nam.

It appears to be a political confrontation — not a religious conflict. It is due in great measure to the weakness of South Viet Nam's political parties.

These are conclusions I've drawn after talks with dozens of Buddhists and equal numbers of Catholics in Saigon and in the provinces of Viet Nam.

In the United States, people wanting to have a voice in government can gain that voice through a political party. Some exert their influence through a variety of organizations.

IN SOUTH VIET NAM, the political organizations are pitifully weak. Other organizations such as labor unions, farmer co-operatives, parent-teacher associations or Chambers of Commerce — are either non-existent or insignificant in strength.

Only three groups — the military, the Catholics and the Buddhists — have the size, the organization and thus the potential for political power.

The Diem government had the backing of the Catholic group. That group is well educated. Because of the French educational system a great share of the upper echelon of government society in French Indochina and later in South Viet Nam was historically either Catholic or educated in Catholic schools.

In a very real sense the Catholic educated people formed the ruling upper class. This was not through trickery or unfairness. It was simply the fact of life resulting from the French colonial educational system, plus an active Catholic missionary effort led by able Western and Vietnamese priests.

MANY BUDDHISTS I TALKED TO in Viet Nam were resentful because they believed President Diem had favored the Catholics. Though most believe Khanh tried to be fair, some think he should have done more to make up for what they call "past discriminations."

Most Vietnamese are Buddhists—at least nominally. The total may be 80 to 85 per cent. Less than 10 per cent are Catholic.

Whatever the history, many Buddhists now want a greater say in Vietnamese affairs. They are impatient with educational requirements which they feel favor those who have gone to Catholic schools.

Some Buddhist leaders are beginning to understand the potential nonreligious political power the large but loose-knit Buddhist "organizations" give them. Some Catholic leaders have reached the same understanding.

In all this I could find no evidence of religious intolerance, either on the side of the Catholics or the Buddhists.

REALIZING THIS POLITICAL POTENTIAL, the Communist Viet Cong have set out to infiltrate South Viet Nam's Buddhist groups.

North Vietnamese documents disclose Red boss Ho Chi Minh has ordered this infiltration be given top priority.

Vietnamese Buddhists told me it was simple for a man to become a Buddhist monk novice. He had only to shave his head, put on a robe and apply for admission. By Buddhist rules no questions can be asked.

New Team

NEW YORK (AP) — Two veteran creators of Broadway musicals, Frank Loesser and Sam Spewack, have teamed up in a new collaborative venture. The pair are at work on an untitled original-story show that is tentatively on the 1964-65 production agenda. Writer Spewack's previous White Way exhibits include "Kiss Me Kate," "Leave It to Me," "My Three Angels." Loesser scores include "Guys and Dolls," "The Most Happy Feller" and "How to Succeed in Business Without Really Trying."

Lord Baltimore gave 560 acres of land near what is now Washington to Col. Joseph Belt of the colonial militia. Its name appeared on the 1725 grant as Cheivy Chase.

His New Movie Has Best Script, Bob Hope Says

By BOB THOMAS

AP Movie-TV Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Notes and comment on the Hollywood scene—

Back to the footlights for Bob Hope? It could happen, says the ever-active comedian. He's thinking of repeating the role he created on the Broadway stage in "Roberta." Bob would do a reprise at the Valley Music Theater in Woodland Hills, and it's no coincidence that he is one of the owners of the successful new home of musicals.

Not that he doesn't have enough to do. He's now starring in a new movie, "I'll Take Sweden," while preparing his first television show on weekends.

In November Bob goes to Australia for the Melbourne Cup. He was supposed to make the trip last year, but his eye ailment intervened. He reports that the doctors say he is getting along fine.

He is enthusiastic about "I'll Take Sweden," in which he tries to protect Tuesday Weld, who plays his daughter, from the advances of Frankie Avalon.

"This is the first time I've had a grown-up daughter in films," he admitted, "and I usually appear with older crooners. But I like the picture because it allows me to be natural. It's the best script I've had since 'Facts of Life'."

The Beatles had a brief confab with producer Walter Shenson about their next movie before leaving Hollywood. "Let's make it funny," they instructed, "and let's make it in color." Now Shenson has to carry it from there.

The Britishers were thrilled at meeting celebrities at their charity reception. They told Stan Freberg they had all his records, and asked eagerly, "have you done us yet?" As a matter of fact, Stan has been dreaming up a bit of a record takeoff on the Beatlemania.

From Nazi Officers

NEW YORK (AP) — Letters written home by Nazi officers during the siege of Stalingrad provide the source material of "Postmark-Zero," a drama which Peter Coe is to direct for Broadway. The play was written by Robert Nemiroff who expects to produce it next season in partnership with Burton C. D'Lugoff. Coe describes the play as not an apology, but an examination of how susceptible humans "could be turned into prejudiced monstrous villains."

WEST SHOKAN NEWS

WEST SHOKAN — The Rev. Ernest Estes, pastor of the local Baptist congregation, in his final sermon last Sunday afternoon before departing for a new field of spiritual labor in Cambridge, Mass. He will be succeeded Sept. 1 by the Rev. Donald Vittner of Long Island, who is married and the father of four children. The Rev. Vittner will reside in Phoenix and serve the two Baptist Churches.

Mrs. Jennie Miller recently entertained at a picnic party gathering of relatives, old friends and neighbors at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Mavis Shurtler of High Point Road. The group included Miss Jennie Kerr, Mrs. Frances Winchell, Miss Mary Crispell, Mrs. Lottie May Hestley, Mrs. Alice Bell, Mrs. Della Evey and Mrs. David Glass and her mother-in-law.

The American Legion recently held a successful Tara jewelry party at the Ashokan hall, formerly the schoolhouse.

Mrs. Alice Crutcher suffered a fall a week ago while checking on the barn chores. She sustained several broken ribs, a bone chip on her left shoulder, the youngest daughter, Mrs. Robert Weaver, and two children came by plane from Ann Arbor, Mich., to assist with the house chores.

Harlow McLean, now visiting his sister, Mrs. Najjar in Indianapolis, Ind., is expected to return home this weekend. He made the trip by jet from LaGuardia field and plans to return by bus.

In the late afternoon of Aug. 11, 1890, during a sun shower and a few sprinkles of rain, a ball of lightning struck the harvest filled barn of M. H. Crispell, shattering a corner and starting a smoldering fire in the hay mow. Quick response by neighbors followed and the fire was extinguished without serious damage. Water was drawn from two farm wells and hauled by stoneboat in barrels from the neighboring brook. Another lightning damage of by-gone days was on a mid-July afternoon in 1891 when a bolt shattered the high steeple atop the belfry of the Olive-Shokan Baptist church. The steeple was torn down and never replaced. Again in 1910 the building was struck but no fire was started. Also during that same July the vacant parsonage barn was struck and burned. The parsonage property located near the West Shokan village center was then occupied by the Ulster and Delaware station agent, Grant Morgan, who was later the Phoenix agent. A third direct hit on the relocated church at its present site was during a night storm in the summer of 1921 but damage was negligible.

James Clarke Jr. and eight-year-old son of New York city, who were camping several days at North Lake, are now visiting his mother, Mrs. Frances Clarke. During World War II Mr. Clarke was a lieutenant in the U. S. Air Force and now has a responsible position in government work.

Frank Royce returned home Wednesday after several days visit at the Cottage Buckhorn. Royce, Allegheny County fire coordinator, a 55-year member and former chief of the Cuba Fire Department, while attending the Olive Fire Department tournament last Sunday afternoon in the recreation grove, met an old friend, Winfred Snyder of Hunley, Ulster County Fire Coordinator. Last Saturday, Mr. Royce, accompanied by Town Superintendent of Highways and Mrs. Marcel Maier, attended the Grahamsville Little World Series. He plans to return in September for a longer stay and do some reservoir and Esopus Creek fishing.

Johnson is doing excavation and cement foundation work on the former Maple Dell Drive for locating another trailer home. Lewis Kaufman is doing the bulldozing work.

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Winchell of West Hurley were weekend visitors at Jackey Brook Farm. Sunday afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Smith, who spent the weekend at Ledgerock Estates, accompanied by their niece, Miss Jeanne Longyear, who had arrived by plane from Mexico City late Friday, were guests at Jackey Brook Farm. Miss Longyear, younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Longyear Jr., graduated with the June class at Trinity College in San Antonio. She is now among a 200-student group enroute to Europe by way of the Queen Mary where in Vienna she will continue her classical education in language for a year in the study of German.

Miss Gaye C. Longyear, the older daughter, is a member of the Peace Corps located at Bogota, Colombia. She has served over half of her two-year enlistment.

By request of Norman Studer, former director of Camp Woodland and now director of Camp Webatuck in Dutchess County, a group of area friends took part in the New York State Folk Festival held there Saturday afternoon and evening. Included was Barbara Moncur, Harry and Marie Siemsen, Ollie Burgher, James Burgraff, Mr. and Mrs. George Van Kleek, Jesse Shurtler and Squire Elwyn C. Davis. The camp, similar to Camp Woodland which closed on Wednesday, accommodates around 300 small, children to teenagers, besides the operating personnel. It has a hilly location with a large spring-fed lake adjoining. During the preceding week Mr. and Mrs. Studer had returned from a summer vacation and educational trip. Studer will resume the directorship of the Down Town Community School on East 11th Street, New York City, with the opening next month. As usual a student group educational tour in this local area will be made in October in charge of Norman Studer.

Earl Skoworth of Olive Bridge, veteran superintendent of the Tongore Cemetery, has returned home after undergoing surgery at Benedictine Hospital. Mrs. Pauline Lortz of Krumville Road was also a patient at that hospital. Both received a shower of greeting cards.

The Gordon Najjar family who are summer camping on the Harlowe McLean farm have rented a house in Woodstock and will take occupancy for several months soon after Labor Day.

Frank North, World War II veteran, for the past three months has successfully operated a service station on Route 128 in West Hurley. Buddy Eckert has employment there as a mechanic.

World consumption of paper over the past 10 years has grown from 55 million tons to 97 million tons.

Actors Sometimes Write Own Lines On Comedy Shows

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Not all the humor that turns up in television's situation comedies is injected by the writers. Sometimes it is added by collaboration during rehearsals.

The other day on the "Andy Griffith Show" set, the sheriff of Mayberry and his new love played by Aita Corsaut, were walking through a rehearsal, scripts in hand. The scene required Andy to take lingering leave of the girl in front of his office, to be joined inside by his deputy, played by Don Knotts.

The script had Andy leaning forward to kiss the girl, then turning away to enter the building. "That's a little too much," frowned Griffith. "Wouldn't it be better if we sort of made love with our eyes a little bit? I just don't think we'd make physical love in public."

Funnier Scene

Director Al Rakitin agreed. Griffith thought for a minute, then added: "Wouldn't it be funnier if Don broke it up by walking between us? Let's try that."

They rehearsed the short scene again. Knotts rushed across the set, cut between the pair and disappeared into the building.

"Boy, that works better," said Griffith with a smile. "That felt wonderful. It's in character, because that's the sort of thing he would do, rush through like that to attract attention."

worked out its own special techniques, and CBS' "Andy Griffith Show" during the past four seasons has learned what is best for its players. For one thing, they rehearse the show in sequence. (Most television shows, including Andy's, are filmed scene by scene according to the sets used, not the sequence of action.)

The sheriff of Mayberry, still an elusive widower, may well be television's most fickle character. Miss Corsaut will play his third — or is it fourth? — love interest.

Negotiations are in progress which might extend the life of the series for two more seasons after this, but Don Knotts definitely leaves at the end of this one. He already has signed contracts for films, and other television work.

Major Overhaul

While our attention was diverted by the activities at Atlantic City, ABC announced a "major overhaul" of its daytime programming starting early in October. It consists of abandoning, after all those tear-stained years, "Queen for a Day," in favor of still another soap opera, "The Young Marrieds," and of changing the title of "The Tennessee Ernie Ford Show" to "Hello, Pea-Pickers."

The creative department of NBC has not been happy — it has changed the name of "The Jack Benny Show" to "The Jack Benny Program."

Today's Business Mirror

By SAM DAWSON

AP Business News Analyst
NEW YORK (AP) — The cost of living has taken its biggest jump in a year. One reason is that it's summer, and some prices, chiefly food, normally go up in hot weather.

Statisticians scoff at the idea that the culprit now is the inflation that some economists have been warning might follow the federal income tax cut. Nary a sign of that as yet, they say.

The rise in the consumer price index was even worse last summer, well before the tax cut. Earlier this year when the tax cut was first expected and then an actuality, the cost of living slowed its habitual climb almost to a crawl.

But the costlier items in this summer's budget are visible to the housewife and the family income provider. Almost all the classifications in the consumer price index are higher this year than last.

Sole exceptions are gas, electricity and other fuels. Here the tax cut is given much of the credit, since in some cases the benefits were passed along by utility companies to their customers.

Also worrisome is that the Labor Department's index of wholesale prices, usually a sedate statistic, has been unusually active in the last two weeks and mostly on the upside.

Whether this foreshadows a further rise in consumer, or retail prices is yet to be seen. In the latest week the farm products component rose 2.2 points, processed foods 1.5 points and industrial commodities 0.1 point.

The consumer price jump, both this summer and last, looks like this on the Bureau of Labor Statistics index, where the 1957-59 average registers as 100.

All items in July 1964 were 108.3 per cent of the base years, meaning that the same things you could buy for $100 in the base years now cost you $108.30. In June 1963 the index stood at 108.0. In July 1963 the index figure was 107.1 and in June 1963 it was 106.6.

In both summers food was the chief troublemaker for the household budget. This July the food index was 107.2, up from June's 106.2. In July a year ago the index figure was 106.2, the same as this June, having risen from June 1963's index of 105.2. Both this summer and last the other items were either stable or moved only slightly higher.

Except for the seasonal ups and downs of food prices, the steady climb in the cost of living has been in the prices of services. This component of the index has risen from the 1953 average of 100.3 to 113.0 last year.

This, say the statisticians, isn't inflation — it's just a pinching of the pocketbook you're supposed to accept even if you can't ignore it.

Weekend Is Highlighted By Political Speculations

WASHINGTON (AP) — Georgia's Gov. Carl Sanders says the Democrats' selection of Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey as their vice-presidential nominee "will prove to be an asset" to them, but Republican National Chairman Dean Burch contends it will unify and help the Republican party.

Another participant in the weekend's radio-television interviews, Sen. Sam J. Ervin Jr., D-N.C., conceded that Humphrey's liberal background would be a liability in some respects in the South. But he predicted the ticket of President Johnson and Humphrey would get a majority of the South's electoral votes.

Humphrey returned to Washington and his Senate duties after a long weekend of relaxation and campaign planning at Johnson's Texas ranch. Johnson remained there for some more unwinding after the party's Atlantic City convention.

Johnson's Republican opponent, Sen. Barry Goldwater, also talked campaign strategy during the weekend, meeting with Dennis Kitchin, his campaign director, aboard a yacht off Newport Beach, Calif.

Rep. William E. Miller of New York, the Republican vice-presidential nominee, issued a "stop, look and listen" caution to Republicans who might be thinking of supporting Johnson. A switch, he said, "would be a flat denial of every principle that has guided the Republican party in all its years."

In New York State, Clare Boothe Luce withdrew as a potential Conservative party candidate for U.S. senator, paving the way for a head-on clash between Sen. Kenneth B. Keating and Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy. Keating was in line for Republican renomination today, and Kennedy for the Democratic nomination Tuesday.

Won't Hurt LBJ
Sanders, appearing on the ABC television and radio program, "Issues and Answers," said he didn't think Humphrey's selection would hurt Johnson's chances in the South.

Suggesting that Humphrey "get out on the stump and talk to the people" in the South, Sanders said "this man is a great campaigner."

Burch criticized both Johnson and Humphrey on the CBS program "Face the Nation," and said the convention which nominated them was "most undemocratic."

A Cynic
He called Johnson "a complete cynic," and said his choice of Humphrey as a running mate was "cynicism of the ultra type." As senators, Humphrey and Johnson often took opposite sides on issues, Burch said, and they opposed each other for the Democratic presidential nomination in 1960.

Noting Humphrey's membership in Americans for Democratic Action — which he said should be called "Americans for Socialistic Action" — Burch said the association has "effectively killed the question of extremism" in the campaign.

ADA Gives Support
Incidentally, the ADA, which describes itself as a nonpartisan group supporting policies of the New Deal and the Fair Deal, announced it is enthusiastically supporting the Johnson-Humphrey ticket.

Among campaign issues, Burch said, will be lawlessness in America, the situation in Cuba and Viet Nam, and the wealth Johnson has acquired since he became a member of Congress.

But the central issue, he said, is "does the United States want a man as cynical as Johnson for president?"

Contending that Johnson "is not the type of example that lends itself to absolute law and order," Burch said:

"I think that cynicism has been established by his going along with the idea that let's stop the (race) riots until Nov. 3, until the election is over, and then you can have all the riots you want."

He told a questioner, however, he is not suggesting that Johnson has no concern over riots after Election Day.

Youth Sentenced For Vagrancy

Taken into custody for questioning after he was seen by Ellenville State Trooper Douglas Dymon loitering near Our Lady of Lourdes Church, on Route 209, Korhonkson, Sunday afternoon, Ernest Panucci, 22, who gave his address as Samsonville, was charged with vagrancy.

Troopers arraigned the youth before Justice of the Peace Abram D. Smith, Town of Rochester. Panucci was sentenced to 10 days in the county jail.

Investigation by Trooper Dymon revealed Panucci is wanted by the sheriff's department in Montgomery County for larceny, troopers reported.

20 New Cases Reported

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — Health officials hope by Wednesday or Thursday to be able to interpret trends and establish how long this city's sleeping sickness epidemic peak might last.

Twenty new suspected cases of encephalitis were reported Sunday, bringing to 413 the number of suspected sufferers of the disease.

3 HURT AT BARCLAY HEIGHTS—Trooper John Turck inspected damage to vehicle involved in a two-car collision on Route 32 south of Route 9W at Barclay Heights Friday night. Three persons were injured and one motorist was cited for failing to keep right. Injured were Henry Dreiser of Pine Grove Avenue, driver of one car, and Francisco Garcia, 17, of Route 2, Box 508 Saugerties, the other driver. Also injured was Richard Passer of Route 2, Box 18, Saugerties, a passenger in the Garcia car. All were taken to Kingston Hospital by H & S ambulance. Garcia was summoned to appear before Saugerties Justice of the Peace William D. Brinnier on Sept. 8.

School Rate Rises $5.59 in Highland; RR Ceilings Down

An increase of $5.59 per $1,000 in assessed valuation in the Highland Central School District tax rate, resulted from a reduction in the railroad ceilings in the Town of Lloyd, according to district officials.

The projected rate was $86, an increase from last year's rate of $76.71, but the reduction in assessments has resulted in a new rate of $91.59 per $1,000 of assessed valuation.

A school board report noted in summation the loss of taxable valuation on railroad property in the Town of Lloyd alone is equal to approximately 10 per cent of the total assessed valuation of the town.

Franklin Roberto, president of the school board, has appointed a committee to study the situation. Committee members are Alfred Halke and John Elia, school board members, and Alfred Shunt, school business manager.

A committee report cautioned, "A corresponding loss of taxable valuation will be suffered by the town in establishing the tax rolls for next year since the tax rolls promulgated this year are used in determining taxes payable in 1965."

Ellenville Boy

Lynch are negroes.

State Trooper Nelms said it was not known where they were heading. The station wagon skidded into the Whitlow car with such force that it was torn in two. It was struck on the left side, just behind the driver's seat. The severed rear portion came to rest 15 to 20 feet away from the front end.

Wreckage from the crash blocked traffic in the north-bound lane for a considerable time after the accident. Cars were backed up for a mile and a half before the lanes were cleared.

Girl's Funeral Is Held Not Far From Death Scene

FRANKFORT, N.Y. (AP) — Relatives and friends gathered today for the burial of a pretty teen-age girl, not far from the courtroom where an ex-mental patient stood accused of shooting her to death in the village hall.

The Church of the Annunciation in nearby Iilon was the scene of funeral services for 17-year-old Noreen Jones, who was cut down by six bullets last Thursday as she sought police protection.

The man accused of shooting the Iilon girl is Benedict X. Dipiazza Jr., 21, son of village Police Judge Benedict Dipiazza. Benedict Jr. was summoned for arraignment today before a substitute judge on a charge of first-degree murder.

The young Dipiazza had been trying to date the slender blonde for three years, police said, but she had rejected him. Dipiazza was sent to Marcy State Hospital, a mental institution, last February after he assaulted Noreen and her parents during a conference in the Herkimer County district attorney's office. After he was released from Marcy, Dipiazza pleaded guilty to an assault charge in Iilon Police Court. He was placed on probation for two years and ordered to stay away from the girl.

Resubmitted, Defeated
Opposing aldermen disapproved the 100 per cent assessment against property holders involved. The council had previously approved the project on a basis of 75 per cent assessment against property holders and 25 against the city, but that was declared illegal under present charter provisions, and when the proposal was resubmitted, it was defeated.

Two Republican aldermen, Anthony J. Aleca, Fifth Ward, and Donald P. Tucker, Fourth Ward, and two Democrats, Leonard VanDyke, Sixth Ward, and Peter J. Mancuso, Eighth Ward, opposed the measure. Robert Gallo (D) Ninth Ward, was absent.

The downtown project calls for an appropriation of $6,000, and that for installing sidewalks on the north side of Mary's Avenue is $2,400. Other work on that street near the Sophia G. Finn School has been completed.

The vote, which failed to authorize the money, came at a special Common Council meeting called by the mayor for Aug. 6. It was held two days after nothing had materialized at the regular council session Aug. 4.

Thefts Reported At Wayside Inn, Groves Trucking
Theft of some $400 to $450 in cash and checks from the Wayside Inn, 8 Van Buren Street, was reported to local police Sunday and a report today noted the theft of two bicycles from one truck and the ransacking of another at the terminal of the John T. Groves Trucking Co., near the West Shore freight house.

Entrance to the Wayside Inn was gained through a rear window and the money was reportedly taken from a secret cache. The theft was committed between 3:30 and 8:30 a. m. Sunday.

An investigation of the other theft was requested at 7:55 a. m. today. Police said two bicycles, tied to a truck had been cut loose and stolen, and another truck had been entered and ransacked, but nothing of value was reported missing.

Walks and Refuse On Tuesday Slate Of City Aldermen

Discussion of requested installation of sidewalks and curbing near the new John F. Kennedy School in the Fifth Ward, and of a refuse disposal site in the same ward is expected at Tuesday night's Common Council meeting.

No legislation is pending on the latter, but it is expected that it will again be discussed because of opposition in the ward.

Mayor John J. Schwenk announced last week that he will again request action on an appropriation for the sidewalk and curb project, which previously failed to get the required nine votes, and he asked parents of children, who will attend the school to request the aldermen to approve the project, and one that will finish similar work on Mary's Avenue near the recently completed Sophie G. Finn School.

Opposed by Association

The Fifth Ward Community Association has opposed the refuse disposal site in a swampy area near Kingston Point from the outset. Attorney Richard W. Griggs, counsel for the association, has charged that the project has been improperly authorized, and Mayor Schwenk, has advised that if he feels that procedure has been faulty, he should resort to "legal action in the courts," and not to "trial by the press."

The sidewalk projects near the new, downtown school calls for new sidewalks and curbs on Delaware Avenue.

Former Fifth Ward Alderman Frank A. Adams recently proposed solution of the sidewalk problem by erection of a stairway from a point on Yeomans Street to the Hasbrouck Park area.

Mayor Schwenk noted that such a solution had been considered months ago, but it was then decided that the more favorable would be the more favorable solution. However, he said, since the plan proposed by Adams' might differ from that previously discussed, he was willing to discuss it with Adams. It was learned today that such a discussion has not taken place.

Drivers Fined Today

Conservatives Fire at Prayer Decision and Reapportionment

SARATOGA SPRINGS, N.Y. (AP) — U.S. Supreme Court decision on prayer in the public schools and legislative reapportionment came under fire today at the Conservative Party's state convention.

Party leaders prepared a proposed campaign platform that called for passage of a constitutional amendment "guaranteeing the right to non-sectarian, non-compulsory prayer in our public schools and other institutions."

Another plank urged "concerted action to curb the Supreme Court's arrogant usurpation of legislative authority," including "immediate restoration to the Congress and the state legislatures of control over reapportionment."

The platform was ticketed for adoption at the convention's afternoon session after a public hearing by the platform committee in the morning.

Other planks proposed: "Substantial revision of tax laws and reduction of personal and corporate income taxes," and "vigorous opposition to further tax increases in New York State."

Mrs. VanDenBerg, 27, and a daughter, 4, were also injured and reported in fair condition at a hospital. A seven-year-old son escaped injury. He was reported to have been riding in a car ahead.

The VanDenBerg family had gone west on vacation.

Plans were underway in Newburgh to replace the present old church structure with a new church in the Town of Newburgh. The original church was erected about 1825.

Three Face Trial For Penn Murder; KKK Members

DANIELSVILLE, Ga. (AP) — Fifty-one days after Lemuel Penn, a Negro educator from Washington, D.C., was shot and killed, three white men faced trial today on murder charges.

Penn and two companions were driving home early July 11 from Army Reserve duty at Ft. Benning, Ga., when a second car drew even with Penn's vehicle. Two shotgun blasts were fired into the Negroes' car and the second car roared away.

After an intensive investigation by hundreds of FBI and state agents, four men identified by the FBI as members of the Ku Klux Klan were arrested Aug. 6 at Athens in neighboring Clarke County.

Three of the men were indicted for Penn's murder by a Madison County grand jury, setting the stage for their trial in the county seat of Danielville.

The indicted men are Joseph Edward Sims, 41; Cecil William Myers, 25, and James S. Lackey, 28. The fourth man, Herbert Guest, 37, is held on a federal charge of conspiring to injure Penn and his companions.

Two Negroes and 94 white persons have been named as possible jurors.

Conservatives Fire at Prayer Decision and Reapportionment

SARATOGA SPRINGS, N.Y. (AP) — U.S. Supreme Court decision on prayer in the public schools and legislative reapportionment came under fire today at the Conservative Party's state convention.

Party leaders prepared a proposed campaign platform that called for passage of a constitutional amendment "guaranteeing the right to non-sectarian, non-compulsory prayer in our public schools and other institutions."

Another plank urged "concerted action to curb the Supreme Court's arrogant usurpation of legislative authority," including "immediate restoration to the Congress and the state legislatures of control over reapportionment."

The platform was ticketed for adoption at the convention's afternoon session after a public hearing by the platform committee in the morning.

Other planks proposed: "Substantial revision of tax laws and reduction of personal and corporate income taxes," and "vigorous opposition to further tax increases in New York State."

Heavy Expansion Costs Cut Off Dividends

Q) "We own American Telephone, General Motors, Bond Stores, Curtiss-Wright, Neisner Brothers. We have been seriously considering selling Neisner Brothers and taking a loss. Curtiss-Wright also has not been doing so well. We don't need ready money but would like our capital to bring us some dividends." E.F.

A) I don't blame you in the least. Neisner Brothers is shifting its emphasis from the variety field to the discount business. No dividends have been paid since March, 1963, and with expansion costs heavy, I look for no resumption of payments for some time. The stock is a speculation on the ability of the able Neisner family ultimately to turn this situation around.

If you want a return on your capital, I suggest that you switch to Pacific Gas & Electric, which is a growth stock yielding 3.5 per cent.

I would switch Curtiss-Wright, which failed to cover its dividend in the first half of 1964, into General Telephone, yielding a well-protected 3 per cent.

Q) "I've been told that I am foolish to put $22,000 into a new home at my age (76). I can get about $16,000 for my old home. My assets, including land, stocks and savings amount to about $200,000. I think that after nursing my invalid husband for a very long time, we are entitled to enjoy an air-conditioned, heated, comfortable home. I realize we may not have too long to live but my thought is—enjoy the fruits of our labor a little, while we may. What is your opinion?" M.A.

A) I do not consider you at all foolish—with your assets—to buy a new home which will obviously be an asset that will appreciate to keenly. A new house is an asset, and with increased income probable, it is quite likely to be an asset that will appreciate. You have a very fine brave spirit and I advise you to go ahead with your plans.

Two Are Snagged In Trap Set Up By Store Owners

Several times in recent weeks, John Trataros has been missing money from his cash register at the Rosendale Food Center, and Saturday night he and his two sons set a trap, which paid off.

In custody on charges of burglary third degree were, Wayne Joseph Rydzewski, 19, Rosendale, and Dale Speenburgh, 20, of Cairo. They were held for hearing today before Justice of the Peace Robert Stedje, Town of Ulster.

According to Sergeant Henry S. Rhodes, Kingston sub-station, Trataros told authorities later, he had missed money from his food market several times recently, and he learned that entrance to the store had been gained through a screen door leading to the generator room.

Saturday night, after closing the market, Trataros and his sons, Paul and Stanley, remained in the darkened store. Troopers said that at about 12:45 a. m. Sunday the Trataros' saw a youth enter. The lights were switched on and authorities said the merchant saw Rydzewski, who was asked to surrender. The intruder, troopers reported, tried to escape but was soon overtaken. He broke away and was hit on the head with a meat tenderizer, according to Sergeant Rhodes. He was collared and troopers were summoned.

Sergeant Rhodes said Troopers John Kohland and Craig Bremer investigated and on arrival at the food market they found Miss Speenburgh sitting in a car parked in front of the building, acting as lookout. Rydzewski and the young woman were taken into custody and later arraigned before Judge Stedje. He pleaded innocent and asked for a preliminary hearing, which was scheduled this afternoon.

A 27-year-old Long Island woman suffered serious injuries of the left foot at 5:50 p. m. Sunday, when she caught her toes in the spokes of the rear wheel of a motorcycle on Lapla Road, Town of Marbletown.

Mrs. Doris Fryba, of 3929 50th Street, Woodside, was taken to Kingston Hospital by Doctor's ambulance. She suffered broken toes and severe lacerations of her left heel.

A report of Trooper Robert Mackey of the Kingston sub-station, stated the woman was riding on the rear fender of a Moped motorcycle operated by Eugene Edwards, 30, of Glen Oaks, Queens.

The vehicle was traveling on Lapla Road when Mrs. Fryba's left toes caught in the spokes of the rear wheel. Both riders were thrown as the motorcycle flipped over. Edwards was not seriously hurt, but he was summoned to the troopers on a charge of operating a motorcycle built for the operator, with two riders.

$50 Bail Posted On Assault Counts

Counter charges of assault third degree were lodged Sunday by two Tillson men following a fight, according to Kingston State Police.

Booked and released in bail of $50 pending a hearing at 5 p. m. today were Michael C. Wilson, 19, and Ted Mcintosh, 22, according to Sergeant Henry S. Rhodes. The youths pleaded innocent before Justice of the Peace Daniel McMonagle, Town of Rosendale.

Troopers Craig Bremer and John Kohland made the arrests.

Three Are Injured ON All Angels Road

A two-car collision on All Angels Road three miles north of Old Hopewell Road, Town of Wappinger, Saturday night, resulted in injuries to three persons, according to Fishkill State Police.

The cars were operated by Brian J. Glancy, 44, of New Paltz, and Edward Sherman, 76, of 101B South Hamilton Street, Poughkeepsie.

The two motorists and Sherman's wife were injured but did not require hospitalization, authorities said. Troopers summoned Glancy on a charge of failure to yield half of the roadway.

Car Strikes Tree, Two Are Injured

When a car operated by Kenneth Miller, 16, of Rt. 2, Box 245, West Saugerties, went out of control Sunday evening, two youths riding in the car were injured, according to a report to the sheriff's office. Both were treated and released.

Miller was operating the car on the Miller premises when the lights went out. As he reached for a flashlight in the glove compartment, the car went out of control and struck a tree. Taken to the Kingston hospital by Myron Benson was Brian Benson and Arnold Thompson.

Deputy Sheriff Carl Swenson and Cornelius DuMond investigated.

Three Fires Are Of Suspicious Nature Downtown

Two downtown fires of suspected incendiary origin today followed one in the same area Sunday.

Firemen were still at the scene of a blaze which damaged the two-story brick and frame office building of the former Katz scrap metal property at 150 Hasbrouck Avenue, this morning, when a car was found ablaze in the same area.

An abandoned car on Catherine Street was involved in the Sunday afternoon fire.

An interior area and contents of the Hasbrouck Avenue building were damaged. A telephone call at 8:48 a. m. today was followed by an alarm from Box 2311, Hasbrouck Avenue and Murray Street. Units from Central Station, including the Cornell engine, the Union, Cordis, Rapid and Wicks companies responded with Capt. Edwin P. Murphy in charge.

Building Vacant

Firemen said the building was vacant and they forced entrance. A pump stream was used.

While at the scene, Fireman Joseph Carle, of Central Station, was informed of a fire in a car on Murray near Ann Street. A unit from the Rapid Company was dispatched there and the blaze was checked with a booster line and pressurized water. It was believed to have been deliberately set. The damaged 1956 Dodge sedan is owned by Thomas Faulkins, of 20 Broadway. The fire was reported at 9:29 a. m.

Children were reported seen in the area shortly before discovery of the car. The car was found in an abandoned car on Catherine Street and near the rear of 59 East Strand. Its owner was undetermined.

An alarm from Box 2131, Hasbrouck Avenue and Mill Street, at 3:36 p. m., summoned units from Central Station, the Union, Cordis, Rapid and Wicks companies, with Capt. Murphy in charge.

Defective Fixture

Fireman John Berardi, of Central Station, suffered an injury of a finger on the right hand, and was treated at Kingston Hospital.

A defect in a fluorescent light fixture resulted in a call at 12:21 a. m. today to the house of Bernard Abelow, 4 Washington Avenue. It resulted in slight ceiling damage in the kitchen area involved. Units from Wilwyck Station with Capt. Harry L. Sills in charge, responded.

Campaign Could Get Out of Hand Presidential Race to Focus Mainly on Personal Issues

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)—This year's political campaign is the kind that can get out of control. The potshots from both sides, with the possibility of one word leading to another, have the built-in potential of an explosion.

Sen. Barry Goldwater, after calling his rival, President Johnson, a phony and the "biggest faker in the United States," said he will conduct the campaign solely on the issues and will not engage in "personal attack."

But his team is attacking. Goldwater's vice-presidential running-mate, Rep. William E. Miller, says Johnson's wealth makes his integrity subject to "some question" and that he hopes integrity and morality in office would always be an issue.

A Worried Man

Sunday Dean Bruch, Goldwater's handpicked chairman of the Republican National Committee, called Johnson "cynical" and said the way the President got his wealth "raises a very singular moral question."

On the "Face the Nation" television show Bruch said of Johnson in connection with Negro riots in Northern cities so far this year: "He is not the type of example that lends itself to absolute law and order."

"I think that cynicism has been established by his going along with the idea that let's stop the riots until Nov. 3, until the election is over, and then you can have all the riots you want."

Just Postpone It

Bruch was asked whether he was seriously suggesting that Johnson just wants a moratorium until Nov. 3 on rioting and after that has no concern about the matter.

"No," Bruch said, "I would not suggest that he has no concern. But I would certainly suggest he wants a moratorium on rioting."

Johnson, in accepting the Democratic presidential nomi-

Travelers Holding Rummage Sale to Benefit Retarded

Kingston Auxiliary No. 30, United Commercial Travelers of America, will hold a rummage sale for the benefit of the Ulster County Association for Retarded Children at 277 Fair Street Oct. 8, 9, 10 from 9:30 a. m. until 5 p. m.

Mrs. David Gruberg, senior counselor of the Auxiliary, urges all members to contribute some articles for the sale.

The committee for the sale is Mrs. Dewey Logan, chairman; Mrs. Wesley Cramer, co-chairman; Mrs. Samuel Feldman, Mrs. N. Vance Hogan, Mrs. Robert Southwick, Mrs. David Gruberg.

Mrs. Hogan, asks the cooperation of all auxiliary members and their friends to help make the sale a success by donating articles of clothing, jewelry, children's clothing, winter clothes for men, women and children. Anyone having a donation may call Mrs. Logan or any member of the committee and the articles will be collected.

The fall meeting of the Auxiliary will be held Tuesday, Sept. 22, at the Elks Club at 8 p. m. at which time final plans will be made for the rummage sale.

nation last week, never mentioned Goldwater's name and told the nation the Democrats wanted no part of "fear or smear."

Turn Other Cheek?

But his speech contained a lot of indirect assaults on Goldwater whom he pictured as a reactionary without naming him. At the same time Johnson talked of turning the other cheek.

Yet, Goldwater had previously provoked him into an angry retort by criticizing Johnson's handling of Viet Nam. The President said Goldwater had committed a disservice to the country and the world.

It's doubtful Johnson will be able to maintain throughout the campaign the same kind of aloofness he tried in his acceptance speech if he has to put up with much of the Goldwater-Miller-Burch kind of attack.

If he gets harsh with Goldwater it's going to be interesting to see how the Arizona senator stands up under it. Goldwater has already been given a taste of what he can expect from Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey.

On the same night Johnson in Atlantic City was urging against "fear or smear" and fixing his oratorical eyes on lofty goals, Humphrey, accepting the vice-presidential nomination, went after Goldwater barehanded and by name.

He accused him of extremism, passion, radical language, recklessness, and being out of step with a majority of the Republicans in Congress.

Among the first pieces of equipment politicians usually acquire are shock-absorbers but this campaign looks like a rocky road for all concerned, so rocky that explosions even this early look like a safe prediction.

Three State Conventions At a Glance

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
REPUBLICANS

The Republican State Committee gathered in New York City today to sit as the party's convention and nominate Kenneth B. Keating for U.S. senator. Former Gov. Thomas E. Dewey had the assignment of placing Keating's name in nomination.

CONSERVATIVES

Conservative Party leaders, meeting in Saratoga Springs, tapped college professor Henry Paolucci for nomination today to oppose Keating in the Senate race. Party leaders decided to name Paolucci, a member of the faculty of Iona College, after Clare Boothe Luce withdrew Sunday as a potential Conservative candidate.

DEMOCRATS

The state Democratic organization convenes in New York City Tuesday and is expected to nominate U.S. Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy to oppose Keating in the Senate contest. Selection of Kennedy appeared virtually assured despite strenuous objections from Rep. Samuel Stratton, who wants the nomination himself. Stratton charges that Kennedy, who has lived most of his life in Massachusetts and Virginia, is not legally entitled to seek the Senate seat from New York.

free and united with Greece."

In other developments Sunday, angry Turks staged anti-Greek and anti-U.S. demonstrations for the fourth successive day while the United Nations command in Nicosia charged that Turkish and Greek flights over Cyprus had heightened tension.

Some 2,000 to 3,000 Turks marched toward Greek and U.S. embassies in Ankara, the Turkish capital, but police stopped them with barricades. In the Aegean port of Izmir, firemen used high-pressure hoses to drive back about 150 persons attempting to demonstrate at the International Trade Fair.

The demonstrations followed an appeal by Premier Ismet Inonu for an end to the riot

Biloxi Opening Schools Today For Both Races

BILOXI, Miss. (AP) — This tourist-conscious Gulf Coast city hopes for calm and quiet today as Negroes begin classes with whites for the first public school desegregation in Mississippi below the college level.

The state is the last in the nation to integrate its elementary and high schools under the historic U.S. Supreme Court decision of slightly more than 10 years ago.

Sixteen Negro first graders are enrolled in four formerly all-white schools.

The registration for the Biloxi school system took place some two weeks ago without incident.

School Supt. R. D. Brown said he anticipated no trouble with the start of classroom work. Any outbreak inevitably would affect tourism, a major industry here.

Biloxi has been relatively free of the racial troubles that have happened elsewhere in Mississippi this summer. A wade-in attempt on the white sand beaches by Negroes erupted into violence in 1960.

First-grade classrooms doors were opened to Negroes by a federal court order which also directed Jackson and rural Leake County to lower racial barriers. Jackson has registered 43 Negro first graders with classes slated to begin Sept. 14. Leake County registered first graders at four of its five white attendance centers, but no Negroes appeared.

Carthage, the largest school in the rural system, will conduct registration Tuesday for first graders. Civil rights sources say three Negroes will register.

The only other Mississippi school system ordered to desegregate is Clarksdale. To date no Negro applications have been made public.

Viet Government Chasing Reds in Buddhist Rioting

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — Warning that further violence would be met with force, the government pressed a search today for Communists suspected of taking part in last week's Buddhist-Roman Catholic riots.

The government said 449 persons, including some Communists, have been rounded up in Saigon so far.

"Many Communist special activities groups entered the capital and have infiltrated various groups and organizations in order to sabotage public order and security as well as cause religious friction," a government communique said.

An army announcement said troops would shoot at demonstrators who refuse to obey orders. For a time last week soldiers watched with folded arms while Catholic and Buddhist youths battled in the streets with machetes, bricks and other weapons.

Calm has been restored in Saigon. A funeral procession of 50,000 Catholics passed through a Buddhist section without incident. Sunday as the bodies of six Catholics killed Friday were borne to their graves.

Five battalions of troops stood guard on abck streets. Others lined the route to the cemetery.

Catholic priests called the victims martyrs during an hour-long Mass. A Buddhist monk attended as representative of the Buddhist Association in a display of unity.

Despite the surface calm in Saigon, a curfew remained in effect today. Schools were to reopen Thursday.

The appointment of Dr. Nguyen Xuan Oanh, 43, as acting premier gave a semblance of stability to the government. Whether the Harvard-educated economist would remain at the helm remained uncertain.

U.S. Ambassador Maxwell D. Taylor flew Sunday to the mountain resort of Dalat, 140 miles northeast of Saigon, to confer with ailing Premier Nguyen Khanh.

Portable Theatre

NEW YORK (AP) — Three Broadway experts and lighting and scenic designers are at work on a Ford Foundation project for development of a portable theater. The State Department has expressed interest in such units for its cultural exchange program. The Ford grant of $75,000 covers a two-year study by Jo Mielziner and Donald Oenslager, both leading designers, and Edward F. Kook, an illumination specialist.

Previously he was a photographer for several newspapers in Central New York.

matter of fact

On Aug. 27, 1883, Krakatoa, a small volcanic island in Sunda Strait, Indonesia, was blown off the face of the earth by a violent eruption. The island had an area of 18 square miles and rose from 300 to 1,400 feet above the sea. The sky was darkened by ashes 100 miles in all directions. Columns of stones, dust and ashes rose 17 miles into the air. The finer particles going into the higher layers of atmosphere, were diffused over a large part of the surface of the earth.

Tshombe Claims Rebels Have Lost Key Congo Post

By ROBIN MANNOCK
LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP) — Premier Moise Tshombe says his army has recaptured the strategic city of Albertville in the eastern Congo, but Communist-backed rebels are reported on the march again toward Bukavu.

Tshombe personally announced the government victory over Radio Leopoldville Sunday. He said the rebels left behind their weapons in the flight from the city. There was no confirmation from other sources. Tshombe said the rebels still held Albertville Airport, 12 miles from the city.

A spearhead of white mercenaries approached the airport last Thursday but were driven off by machine-gun fire. Five were wounded.

Reports reaching Elisabethville today said a British unit at the head of a volunteer European unit and Congolese army units took Albertville in a pincer action.

The reports said a team of military advisers was flying to Albertville to determine the fate of Europeans who had been held as hostages by the rebels.

Tshombe said his troops freed 28 Europeans who had been held hostage. He gave no indication of the fate of about 100 other whites in the city.

Tshombe hopes the recapture of Albertville will give the demoralized Congolese army a psychological boost in its attempt to beat back rebel forces in the northeast Congo. He recently began recruiting white mercenaries, including some veterans of the Katanga secession, after the Congolese army suffered a string of reverses.

Albertville, the main Congolese city on the western shore of Lake Tanganyika, fell under control of rebel leader Gaston Soumialot in June.

Tshombe's latest announcement followed an army report that a strong rebel force was marching on Bukavu, on the eastern Congo border 225 miles north of Albertville.

May Ask Board To Query County Airport Group

Supervisor Thomas D. Mahar (D-Poughkeepsie Town) chairman of the Dutchess County Board of Supervisors, said Saturday night he is seriously considering asking the Board to investigate the County Airport Commission.

Mahar said an investigation might be justified in view of "unwarranted attacks" on the supervisors' handling of a new airport operation contract awarded through the Airport Commission through its chairman, Albert Richard.

The supervisor noted that the Federal Aviation Agency demands for revision of the airport contract recently awarded to Dutchess Aviation Inc., followed closely on Richard's criticism. Mahar said at the same time the FAA demands concern "phrasing not basic contract terms."

At the same time, Supervisor Samuel H. Morrison, (R-Town of Washington) called for scrapping of the Dutchess Aviation contract and suggested that the Board of Supervisors advertise for new bids on the airport operation under specifications approved by the FAA.

BRIDGE Slam Convention in Jacoby System

By OSWALD JACOBY
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

The one revolutionary part of the Jacoby method of asking for aces is the use of five clubs directly over any three no-trump bid by partner as the demand for aces. It is revolutionary in that up to now the only bids used as ace demands have been four no-trump and four clubs.

It is not much of a revolution since the bid won't come up often but it makes possible the use of both four clubs and four no-trump as natural bids in this situation. It also loses nothing since the presumption is that you will be able to stop at five no-trump if two aces are missing.

The responses to five clubs are: five diamonds—no aces or four aces; five hearts—one ace; five spades—two aces; and five no-trump—three aces.

Today's hand does not represent any triumph for this method of asking for aces. As long as you have some way to ask for aces you will get to the right contract after your partner opens with three no-trump.

The great advantage of this method is that it releases both four clubs to show clubs and four no-trump as a no-trump raise immediately over partner's three no-trump bid and costs you nothing since the number of times you will want to go from three no-trump directly to five clubs is about as close to zero as it is possible to get in bridge.

Claim Vikings Beat Columbus by 500 Years

WASHINGTON (AP) — Archaeologists have turned up what they consider evidence that the Vikings beat Christopher Columbus to the New World by about 500 years.

A tiny stone wheel, found in a Newfoundland wilderness, was hailed as a clue to a Viking settlement in North America nearly 1,000 years ago. The wheel was identified as part of a wool-spinning device and the first Viking household article found on the continent.

Dr. Melville Bell Grosvenor, president and editor of the National Geographic Society, said the discovery suggests that the Vikings brought their wives to do household work in an unsuccessful attempt to establish a permanent settlement.

Ban Unnecessary Water Use In Village; Dam Flow Halts

More Help Needed For Big Apple Crop

An increase in seasonal help is needed because a large apple crop is expected, according to Bernard Kimball, New York State Farm Labor representative in Ulster County.

He said migrant farm workers will be coming from the Delaware, Maryland and Virginia areas soon. The seasonal farm labor office in Clintondale will remain open through October. Kimball said the temporary office has handled a number of requests for farm help from county apple growers.

Drought conditions in the Saugerties area reached the critical stage today with the announcement by Mayor William Ziegler banning the unnecessary use of water in the village.

Mayor Ziegler said the ban prohibits the watering of lawns, car washing, filling of swimming pools and other unnecessary uses of water. The ban applies to all residents using the village supply.

The mayor said that for the first time in many years the flow of excess water over the Blue Mountain Reservoir dam has stopped.

He asked for the cooperation of all citizens in conserving water in order that pressure can be maintained for emergency services.

Arrested for Assault

Louis C. Terpening, 27, of Union Center Road, Ulster Park, was arrested by Deputy Sheriffs Vincent Van Demark and Michael Stuper Saturday on a third degree assault charge brought by his wife, Mary Terpening. Taken before Justice of the Peace Allan Dargie of town of Esopus, a psychiatric examination was ordered, and Terpening was remanded to custody of the sheriff.

SAUGERTIES NEWS

VFW Auxiliary's Plans Includes Fair Bus Trip

Reservations are now being taken from members of the Saugerties Memorial Post 5034, VFW and its Ladies Auxiliary for a bus ride to the World's Fair Sunday, Sept. 27, open to members and their families only, the bus will leave Saugerties bus terminal at 8 a. m., returning from the fair grounds at 10 p. m. It will be a non-profit venture, with the cost being split among those reserving seats.

For reservations, contact Mrs. Isabel DeCelle. Discount admission tickets are also available from Mrs. Dorothy Wood. Deadline for making the reservations is Sept. 20.

Other business discussed at the recent meeting of the Ladies Auxiliary included the announcement of Volunteers Day at Castle Point Veterans Hospital by Hospital chairman, Mrs. Ruth Prendergast. All present and past volunteer hospital workers and all Post, Auxiliary and Dads are invited to attend the open house at the hospital on Sunday, Sept. 19, when a massing of the colors will be among the highlights. Details will be announced later.

Mrs. Peggy Wade, president, assumed the duties of Loyalty Day co-chairman for the 1965 annual event.

A date in November is being set for the rummage sale to be headed by Mrs. Kay Helm. Mrs. Helm reminds members and friends of the Auxiliary to keep this in mind while sorting summer and winter clothes in the coming weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Breithaupt attended the Dads Day at the VFW National Home in Easton, Mich. during the summer. Mrs. Breithaupt described in detail the marvelous grounds and facilities available to the widows and orphans of VFW members. They were escorted through the New York State Home and toured the other buildings.

Mrs. Marie Sheehan reminds Auxiliary members who have daughters or know of girls from age 7 through 16 who would be interested in becoming a member of the VFW Junior Unit, that meetings are held on the second Thursday of each month. The charter has been received and as soon as the group is familiar with the floor work and by-laws, they will be instituted. For full information, contact Mrs. Sheehan.

A successful blood bank drawing was conducted in July, according to the chairman, Mrs. Helen Gardner. But due to the complete lack of blood in the county, another will be slated in the near future. In the past week, Mrs. Gardner has had to send donors directly to the Kingston Laboratory in order to have on hand the necessary blood for an operation and to help in the case of a leukemia victim.

The next monthly meeting will be held on Sept. 9.

Women Voters League to Study Apportionment

What did the U. S. Supreme Court decide concerning apportionment?

What part have U. S. District Courts played in the current apportionment decision?

How will these decisions affect New York State?

How will new districts be formed and is it possible to draw new districts without gerrymandering?

These are some of the questions which will be discussed and answered at the Sept. 9 meeting of Saugerties Provisional League of Women Voters 8 p. m. in Saugerties Methodist Church. This is the first meeting of the fall for the Saugerties League and the program will be conducted by the Apportionment Committee, Mrs. John Oakley, Chairman.

Apportionment is much in the news now and the Leagues throughout New York State will use last year's basic study of apportionment in trying to find whether or not the Leagues can develop standards for districting.

Another decision to be made is what body should do the districting. What is apportionment and districting and what do they mean to us as residents of New York State?

Apportionment is the manner in which the number of representatives are assigned to various electoral or other regions of a state or nation. Districting is the process of delineating the boundaries of an area from which a representative is to be elected. All women of the area are invited to this meeting.

Saugerties Provisional League would like to take this opportunity to announce its new board members. Mrs. Charles Steele, former voter service chairman, was elected at the last board meeting to succeed Mrs. Clyde Knauer as president. Mrs. Knauer is moving to Walden in Sept. Mrs. Alan Kruger is the chairman of the new national study item (Development of Human Resources); Mrs. Lewis Gossett—national continuing responsibilities and water resources; Mrs.

The race of delight is short, and pleasures have mutable faces.

Samuel Johnson found a delightful way to describe the difference between love and friendship: "The feeling of friendship is like that of being comfortably filled with roast beef; love like being enlivened with champagne."

For years he had devoted all his energies to amassing a fortune and finally the time came when he was acknowledged to be the richest man in the town. He managed to squeeze himself into a very exclusive golf club. Leisurely he looked around, upon his initial visit to the grounds, for a possible partner, and his choice fell upon a tall aristocratic-looking gentleman who suggested social standing.

The latter very affably signified pleasure in the newcomer's invitation, and as they approached the first tee he continued: Gentleman--By the way, I'm a four man. What are you? Rich Man--Hm! a foreman, are you? Well, I'm in business for myself.

We are most to believe a liar even when he tells the truth.

Mr. Lawson will assume office as President of Pageant Inc., which has the official franchise from the Miss America Pageant in Atlantic City to conduct the State Pageant on Sept. 15, succeeding Mr. Kurdt, who will remain as a member of the board of directors. Other officers for the fiscal year of 1964-65 are Mrs. Davenport and Fred W. Moore, vice presidents; Charles H. Turner, treasurer and Jason Goumas, secretary. The official franchise for conducting 1965 State Pageants will not be awarded until several weeks after the Miss America Pageant. ## HOW TO MAKE FRIENDS ON A CRUISE

Q: I am going on a 10-day cruise. I will be traveling alone. How can I become acquainted with the other passengers without seeming to force myself upon them. Would it be proper to introduce myself to them?

A: On a cruise, as at a large house party, the passengers, or guests, greet each other as a matter of course. You speak to those seated at the table with you and you may also speak to those seated next to you on deck. If, however, they do not respond with friendliness to your greeting, you leave them alone and do not force yourself upon them. You can also go to the cruise director who will be glad to introduce you to congenial people who like to do the things that interest you, such as playing bridge, deck games or dancing.

When Doorman Gets A Taxi

Q: I visited friends who recently moved into a large apartment house. When I left, I asked the doorman to get me a taxi. I would like to know if I should have given him a tip.

A: If he merely signaled to a passing taxi to stop, no tip was necessary; but if he went to any trouble to get one for you, you should have given him a tip.

Hughes Beats Barthel, 3 and 2 In Thriller at Twaalfskill

Cards 8 Birds And Eagle to Top Young Foe

George Hughes has won his sixth straight Twaalfskill Club championship and 11th since 1951.

And never was the Sweet Swinger more brilliant than in turning back the tremendous challenge of youthful Barthel, 3 and 2, in Sunday's 36-hole finals.

In what may have been his most shining hour, the veteran champion played the 34 holes in the long, hot, humid day in 7 under par and his card showed an assortment of 8 birds and an eagle.

A morning round of 33-34-67 gave him only a one-hole margin over the 1964 Herdegen Memorial winner who carved out nines of 35 and 33 for a 68.

Goes Out in 32
Hughes went out in 32 on front nine of the afternoon and aided two more holes to his lead as Barthel in relentless pursuit posted a 34.

At this stage of the match, Hughes had a 27-hole score of 99, six under par for the distance, but Barthel was still menacing. The champion quickly widened his lead to five holes with pars on the 10th and 11th and it appeared that Barthel was about to crack under the tremendous pressure of Hughes' shooting. Hughes was 5 up with 6 to go.

Three-Hole Rally

But it didn't quite happen that way. Pulling himself together for one final assault on the old monarch, Barthel swept the next three holes, with a birdie-3 on the 13th and pars on the 14th and 15th where Hughes slipped one over.

The 7th hole at Twaalfskill is a birdie paradise and Hughes capitalized on it three of the four times around the 9-hole layout. The third time was crucial. Hughes' second shot was on in 2 about 15 feet from the pin. Barthel, just short, chipped too strongly in 3 and missed the putt coming back. Hughes played it for a safe birdie and closed out the sensational match.

Opens With 3-3-3-3

Hughes had launched his title defense with a duffer's dream (3-3-3-3) on the first four holes where par is 4-3-4-4. That gave him a fast three hole and augured a rout but many hard, tough holes lay ahead before the title was secure.

Barthel collected five birdies and was unable to match Hughes' lone eagle on the par-4 fourth where both consistently drove the green.

For Hughes it was his second close match in two days. In Saturday's semi-final round, he was forced to fire a 3-under-par 67 to survive 2 up against attorney Frank Vogt, who posted a career-low 69. Barthel defeated his brother, Fred, 4 and 3, in the other bracket.

The cards:

Randall Defeats McCullen 7 and 6 for Wiltwyck Title

The situation is back to normal at Wiltwyck Country Club today.

Leon Randall defeated W. H. (Bill) McCullen, 7 and 6, in the 36-hole finals Sunday to regain the club title he had abdicated to Harvey Bostic in 1963.

It was the Blond Belter's 8th Wiltwyck crown since he won it for the first time in 1949. McCullen, golf champion at Wiltwyck, was a surprise finalist but had played the finest golf of his career for the right to challenge the perennial champion.

In the semi-final action Saturday, McCullen posted a 76 to eliminate another surprise finisher, Jim Penrose, 2 up. Randall, meanwhile, had turned back youthful Dan Gaffney, 6 and 4, in the other bracket.

Bad Second Nine

After staying within a hole of Randall on the first nine, McCullen faltered coming in and trailed by 3 holes at the end of the morning round. He had birdied the 4th hole from 8 feet and chipped in from 10 feet to birdie the par-5 seventh hole.

Three-up, Randall widened his lead to five by taking the 17th and 18th holes. He was home in 2 on the par-five 17th and rimmed the cup in a bid for his eagle.

WILTWYCK FINALISTS—Leon Randall left, and W. H. (Bill) McCullen were finalist in the 1965 championship flight at Wiltwyck Country Club, Randall won, 7 and 6 (Freeman Photo)

Randall went 6 up with a birdie-4 on the par-five second hole in the afternoon round. He ran down a tricky 12-footer. McCullen battled Randall on even terms through the remainder of the front nine.

A poor drive got McCullen in trouble on the 28th hole where Randall got down in par 4 to go 7 up. The match ended when both parred the 12th hole, leaving Randall 7 up with six to play.

Outsider Beats Nevele Gourmet

MONTICELLO — Outsider Murrigan took the lead for keeps about 50 yards from home and held on for a three-quarter length win over Nevele Gourmet in Saturday's feature, an invitational trot at Monticello Raceway.

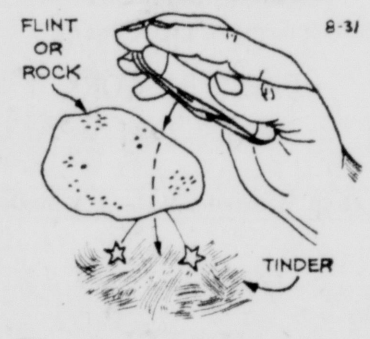

Driver Don Bailey moved the six-year-old bay gelding to the outside past the half pole. The winner battled for the lead with Nevele Gourmet for more than a quarter-mile before moving ahead in the final steps to win the major share of the $2,500 purse.

Sent off at 11-1 odds, Murrigan paid $25.10, $6.90 and $4.50 in capturing his fourth win in 10 outings. He went the mile in 2:07.2. Nevele Gourmet returned $3.70 and $2.80 while third place finisher Lone Scot returned $4.10.

A dead heat in the first race, a mile pace, resulted in two daily double payoffs. Afton Dust (4) and Lotta Carlotta (1) crossed the finish line at the same time. When Chuckie Byrd won the second race, the 1-3 combination paid $15.80 and 4-3 double returned $61.20.

Skowron's Homer Key In 3-0 Win

By MIE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

Moose Skowron's first homer in six weeks has put the cap on the 24-day period in which the three leading American League pennant contenders finished firing against each other and left unanswered only one small question:

Who's going to win the American League pennant?

Skowron, who has a chance to play in his third consecutive World Series with as many teams, slammed a fifth inning homer Sunday that broke up a scoreless battle and started the Chicago White Sox on the way to a 3-0 victory over first-place Baltimore.

That lifted Skowron's average to .308 since he was accorded from Washington this season after pennant-winning years with the New York Yankees in 1962 and Los Angeles Dodgers last year. It also lifted the White Sox to within one-half game of the front-running Orioles at the end of the contender's round robin.

The Orioles, who started the 24-day stretch on Aug. 7 in second place by four percentage points, compiled a 9-6 record against Chicago and New York during that period and took over the league lead. The White Sox were 9-7 against the other two, moving up after being third, 1 1/2 out.

The biggest losers were the New York Yankees, who started the swing against Baltimore and Chicago in first place, lost 10 of 15 to the other leaders and fell to third place. The Yankees are trailing Boston 9-3.

As for the remainder of the schedule, none of the leaders seems to have an advantage. Here's the way it looks:

Baltimore — At home, 16 — Kansas City 5, Minnesota 3, Los Angeles 3, Washington 3, Detroit 2, Away, 15 — Minnesota 3, Los Angeles 3, Kansas City 2, Washington 2, Detroit 2, Cleveland 3, Chicago 3.

At home, 14 — Detroit 2, Cleveland 4, Washington 3, Los Angeles 1, Kansas City 4, Away, 14 — Washington 2, Minnesota 2, Cleveland 3, Detroit 2, Los Angeles 2, Kansas City 3.

New York — At home, 16 — Minnesota 3, Los Angeles 3, Kansas City 3, Detroit 4, Cleveland 3, Away, 17 — Los Angeles 3, Kansas City 3, Minnesota 2, Detroit 2, Cleveland 4, Washington 3.

In other AL games Sunday, Tony Oliva's 28th homer brought Minnesota a 5-4 victory over Washington. Ken McBride won his first game in 2 1/2 months as the Los Angeles Angels edged Detroit 5-4 and Kansas City ended Cleveland's eight-game winning streak with a 9-3 victory before the Indians won the second game 6-5.

Skowron smashed a 390-foot shot off Robin Roberts for his first homer since July 16. Ward took care of the other runs, driving in one with a triple in the ninth inning and then scoring on a wild pitch.

Joel Horlen nursed the 1-0 lead into the eighth inning, then departed for a pinch hitter. Gary Peters, making his first relief appearance for Chicago, took over in the eighth but left with two out and a man on second. Hoyt Wilhelm struck out Brooks Robinson to end the threat then set the Orioles down quietly in the ninth.

4-Run Rally in Seventh Keeps K of C in Series

Knights of Columbus and Hurley are even up, one game apiece, and ready for today's third and deciding clash for the Babe Ruth League championship at 6 p. m. at Dietz Stadium.

Hurley nipped the Knights, 8 to 7 in a 9-inning thriller Saturday and the Knights bounced back with a 4-run seventh inning rally to square the series 6 to 3 Sunday.

An outfield error ruined a superb relief pitching stint by Charlie James of the Knights in Saturday's opener. It accounted for Hurley's winning run after James had limited them to 2 hits and fanned 9 in 1 1/3 innings. The ball on which the error was committed was the only one hit out of the infield during James' tenure on the mound.

Moore Is Victim

Meanwhile, Charlie Moore pitched effectively for Hurley over the last five innings. Both Sox had three RBIs and Ralph Hoffman a pair for Hurley. There were no extra base hits in the contest. Gerry Corrado started for the Knights.

Vogt, John Carter of Hurley and Corrado and George Dougherty of the Knights hit two singles each.

Chick Exceeds in Relief

Although Dougherty and Julius Chick combined to pitch a one-hitter, the Knights had to rally with four runs in the seventh to win Sunday's equalizer. Chick relieved Dougherty, who was taken out because of a muscle cramp in his arm in the first inning, and allowed only one run the rest of the way.

Key hits in the Knights' rally was Corrado's line drive single for two runs after two walks and an error and Jack Watzka's infield single which accounted for the two other runs.

Dave Carver's single was the lone Hurley safety. Joel Tomson lost the four-hitter for Hurley.

Van Aken Tops Dean, 11 and 10 For Woodstock Championship

Three consecutive birdies triggered the potent magic in Bill Van Aken's golf game and he went on to trounce youthful David Dean, 11 and 10, for the Woodstock Country Club championship in Sunday's 36-hole finals.

The charter member of the area's Big Three threw a front nine 33 at his 19-year-old opponent and then widened his morning lead to 8 holes with a finishing 36 for a one-under-par 69.

Dean, a former Ontario High school star, was out in 36 but soared to a 41 coming in to give Van Aken his insurmountable advantage.

Lightning struck the youthful challenger on the 3rd, 4th and 5th holes of the first nine after he won the first hole with a par to Van Aken's bogie 5. They halved the second hole and then it happened.

Cans 40-Footer

Van Aken canned a 15-foot birdie putt on the par three 366-yard third and went ahead to stay with a spectacular 40-foot birdie-2 on the 165 yard, par three 4th hole. The champion was home in two on the 475-yard par 5 fifth and settled for a birdie-4 when his bid for an eagle-3 rimmed the cup.

Two up, Van Aken lost the seventh hole with a bogie-5 but birdied the par-4 eighth from 15 feet and pared the 9th to lead 3 up. Dean yielded the 10th hole to a par yet Van Aken grabbed the 11th with a bogie-5. A par 3 on the 18th terminated the morning round with Van Aken leading 8 up.

en has been Philadelphia's most potent batting threat, compiling a .312 average with 24 homers and 73 runs batted in. But some of his bobbles — he has made 27 in the last 64 games — have been costly.

Sunday, for example. With the bases loaded and one out in the second inning, Bob Bailey grounded to third. The ball bounced off Allen's knee, and two runs came across. Gene Allyn went to third on the play and scored on Manny Mota's bunt single.

Then with two out the next inning, Allen fielded Bob Veale's grounder flawlessly and threw high to first, permitting Donn Clendenon to score from second. Bailey then singled in another unearned run.

Another Bad Day

Only eight days before, an Allen error lead to five unearned runs and a 9-4 Pirate victory.

In other NL games Sunday, Cincinnati nipped Houston 7-6 after losing 8-5 to St. Louis whipped Los Angeles 5-1 and Chic agkkooned off New York 7-3.

Has 33 Errors

Allen's errors increased his season total to 33, a rare height even for an entire season. Allen has done it in 129 games, giving him 3 more games in which to surpass the most misuses made by a National League third baseman in 25 years.

That figure is 41, achieved by Sissy Sisti of the Boston Braves in 1941.

Of course, the 22-year-old All-

BILL VAN AKEN

Winningest Champ

Van Aken surrendered the 19th hole to Dean then played even with the card to bring the match to its inevitable conclusion. He picked up his 5th birdie of the day with a 15-foot putt identical with that on the first nine on the 23rd hole.

Dean, who hit for tremendous distance off the tees throughout the match, made his tee shot on the par-4 dog-leg 7th (26th) a bit too strong and it landed in the brook out of bounds. Van Aken played for a safe-4 to close out the match.

The victory added to Van Aken's statue as the winningest champion in Woodstock Country Club history. His win Sunday marked his 8th run for the roses in the last 11 years. His nearest competitor is Boyer Gonzales, who captured six WCC titles.

How much longer can we hand you this line?

Forever, we hope. Because nobody ever intends to change the Volkswagen's shape. The only reason the Volkswagen is ever changed is to make it work even better. The money that isn't spent on outside changes is spent inside the car. This system provides an immense advantage: Time. Years of it. There's time to improve parts and still keep most of them interchangeable. (Which is why it's so easy to get VW parts, and why our mechanics don't wake up screaming.) There's time to put an immense amount of hand work into each VW, and to finish each one like a $6,000 machine. And this system has also kept the price of the Volkswagen almost the same over the years. Some cars keep changing and stay the same. Volkswagens stay the same and keep changing.

Waning Cleo Dies Slow Death, Still Disturbing Areas

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Tropical storm Cleo grudgingly gasped expiring winds today, but spewed heavy rains over sections of the western Carolinas, Maryland and the Virginias.

Roads, Va., got 1 1/2 inches; Morgantown, W. Va., received more than 1 inch; Asheville, N.C., got nearly 4 inches in 24 hours and Winston-Salem, N.C., nearly 3 inches.

The rains sent rivers and streams beyond their banks throughout the area.

After spreading many millions of dollars in damages further south, Cleo spawned two tornadoes at Laurinburg, N.C., within 13 hours. The first one Saturday tore through a three-mile path, injured two persons and caused an estimated $750,000 damages. Sunday, the second twister damaged some roofs outside the town.

Nearly three inches of rain fell over Cape Hatteras, N.C., Sunday.

Conservation Club Formed To Save the Sawkill Stream

Woodstock Conservation Club pledged to save the Sawkill stream has been organized in Woodstock under the aegis of Frank Mele, prime mover and chairman of the project.

Mele, who is more widely known as a musician, teacher and music critic, announces that a second meeting of the group will be held Tuesday, Sept. 8, at 8 p. m. at town hall. All persons interested in this conservation project are invited.

Assisting Mele in the early phases of organization are Andy Shekita, Sal Sirugo, Betty and Richard Crane and Ken Downer. Tony Robinson, the author, is serving as secretary and Albert Holmizer is treasurer.

Expresses Concern

Expressing deep concern for the future of the Sawkill, Mele, speaking in behalf of the club, asked his audience to visualize a Sawkill "suddenly taken away from us; to imagine what Woodstock would be without streams. No streams at all? That's what's happening."

Said Mele: "We must face this possibility unless we take steps immediately."

The club will seek to arouse public interest to provide sufficient manpower to erect a number of dams along the Sawkill before the winter snows begin to fall. If at least 40 people can be persuaded to take up materials and tools in order to save what can be saved now, the State Department of Conservation can be counted on to work with the group in picking sites for two or more immediate dams as a starter toward greater and long-range improvements, Mele said.

Conservation Speaker

The club's first meeting was highlighted by a slide lecture by Chris Chrystie of the State Conservation Department, who outlined methods of restoring the desirable conditions that once existed in the Sawkill. He discussed heavy siltation problems, watershed troubles, moving silt downstream, creating pools and assuring the rapid flow of the stream and shrinking pollution.

Chrystie suggested for the Sawkill well shaded and stable banks, erasing the bank erosion problem, eliminating split channels, repairing damage done by highway equipment in bulldozing, and by the Army in flood control; fencing, planting of willows, log-cribbing and stone rapping to stop erosion and, finally, those all important dams.

He pointed out that the Phoenicia Fish and Game Club is doing such work privately in the Woodland Valley area with good success and it can be done in Woodstock, as well. Inexpensive A-frames or larger one all the way across the stream can create pools from 6 to 8 feet deep. The state is ready to send 4 to 6 man crews out of Albany for consultation on constructing such improvements, as well as pyramid-like dams, deflectors, etc.

Cole Paintings To Be Auctioned At Catskill

A number of beautiful paintings by a 19th century artist who once described the view from Overlook Mountain "as one of the most beautiful in this part of the world" will be auctioned at the estate of his granddaughter in Catskill on Sept. 26.

The painter was Thomas Cole, a world famous landscape artist, who died in February, 1848, after years of poor health at the age of 47. Cole is generally credited with founding the Hudson River School of artists, although some historians recognize Thomas Doughty as a co-founder. The school existed between 1820 and the 1860's.

At Evers, Woodstock town historian notes that Cole spent a couple of nights on Overlook in life and made his last trip to Woodstock a few months before he died.

Calls Overlook Best Although the view from Catskill Mountain House was then considered unrivaled and attracted visitors from all over the world, Cole wrote that the view from Overlook was superior.

The auction will be conducted at the estate of Mrs. Edith Cole Hill, whose 125-year-old home is located on Spring Street in Catskill. In addition to the Cole paintings, other valuable items of furniture and china which have been in the house for many years will be auctioned.

Following a wait of two years for the state to make a decision to purchase the Thomas Cole home as a museum, and advised each year the purchase has been stalled in the Budget Committee, Mrs. Hill decided to hold the auction. The Cole home and property which is in excellent condition.

The home contains many antiques of both the 18th and 19th century and more than 40 paintings, a number of Cole's masterpieces, as well as sketches he made for some of his famous works.

Historic Painting Mrs. Hill said some of the Cole paintings have been delivered to Kennedy and Co. in New York for exhibition. The company is one of the largest dealers in Americana in the country. However, Cole's magnificent painting "Christ in the Wilderness" will be auctioned as well as others and some of his "Voyage of Life" sketches. Mrs. Hill said she will also auction a gilt mirror which has as its crown a watercolor by Cole dated 1823.

Much of the original china in the house will be auctioned and "all the valuable items," according to Mrs. Hill. Handling the auction will be O. Rundle Gilbert, a well known auctioneer from Garrison on the Hudson, who handles auctions of large and valuable estates.

Foundation Sets Annual Awards

The Crafts Foundation of Woodstock will again this year make two awards available to craftsmen, it was announced today.

The Konrad Cramer Award of $100.00 in cash will be presented for the best professional craftsman and another award of $25.00 in cash will be made to a student.

Craftsmen who work in any of the following fields are eligible for the awards: ceramics, pottery, jewelry, silversmithing, enameling, weaving, sculpture, wood and woodcarving, embroidery and blockprinting.

Work submitted for the awards must be delivered to the Woodstock Guild of Craftsmen on Friday, Sept. 11, or Saturday, Sept. 12, between the hours of 1 and 5 p. m.

The crafts exhibit will be open to the public in Kleinfert Hall from Sept. 19 through Oct. 3.
